Tennessee Cooperative Baptist Fellowship
Announces
$1,000.00
Ircel Harrison Theological Scholarship

Ircel Harrison served as Tennessee CBF Coordinator from 1998 to 2008. After his retirement, the decision was made to name the annual theological scholarship in his honor. Ircel has been a strong supporter of theological education in Tennessee CBF life. He was instrumental in establishing Central Baptist Theological Seminary in Tennessee. Ircel is a strong supporter of women in ministry and encourages opportunities for their theological education.

The Ircel Harrison Theological Scholarship is awarded each year at the Tennessee CBF General Assembly. This year’s General Assembly is on April 11, 2015 in Knoxville, TN.

Financial Award: $1000

Application Deadline: February 1, 2015

Eligibility Requirements:
The applicant must:
- Have Tennessee connections through birth, residence, college education, or a desire to serve in the state
- Be a member of a CBF affiliated congregation or demonstrate support to state and/or national CBF programs, ministries, or missions
- Be entering or currently enrolled in a masters or doctoral program (preference is given to CBF partner schools)

To Apply:
Go to www.tncbf.org, click on Resources > Theological Education > Ircel Harrison Theological Scholarship. Complete the application form, provide required documents, and follow the instructions.

Contact Information:
Terry Maples – tmaples@tncbf.org.