DAY 2, Mon, July 31 ARRIVE LONDON/OXFORD

After arriving at Heathrow London we will transfer by luxury coach through the beautiful English countryside to Oxford University, the oldest university in the English speaking world with classes dating to the 11th century. Oxford is a congregation of 40 independent colleges and private halls that make up the university. Our first stop will be Regent's Park College, the Baptist college formerly known as Stepney, founded in London in 1810 and part of Oxford since 1922. We will visit the famed Angus Library with its 500,000 items including autographs of C.H. Spurgeon, Alexander MacLaren and other Baptist leaders, along with the sign from William Carey's cobbler shop. We will go around the corner to the Eagle & Child to the room where the Inklings (Lewis, Tolkien, Charles Williams et al) met for decades on Tuesday to read their writings to one another. Then past the Martyr's Memorial we will walk down Broad Street, pass Blackwell's famed bookstore, by Christopher Wren's Sheldonian Theater, the Bodleian Library to the University Church of St. Mary's where Wesley, John Henry Newman and C.S. Lewis preached. Walking up High Street we will arrive at Magdalene College, see the rooms where C.S. Lewis lived and tutored, and walk along the beautiful Cherwell where Addison walked and where punters enjoy the waters. Then we board our coach to The Kilns, the home of C.S. Lewis and later Joy Davidman. Sit at his desk, see the original Wardrobe of Narnia, stand in the tiny room where he slept and the room where he passed on to immortality. We will then visit his gravesite and Holy Trinity Church, the tiny church where you can sit in his pew. We will return to the Oxford Hotel with a treasury of memories for a lifetime. (B aloft)

DAY 3, Tue, Aug 1CAMBRIDGE

We depart Oxford this morning for Cambridge, site of one of Europe's oldest and best-known universities. Chartered early in the thirteenth century, Cambridge University, and much of the town's medieval architecture still remains: winding streets, spired churches and turreted buildings. Upon arrival we visit St. Andrews Street Baptist Church where Spurgeon once taught Sunday school. We have time for lunch here, and then we visit Holy Trinity Church, where Charles Simeon, often hailed as an ancestor of the evangelical movement in the Church of England, once served. Then we visit Trinity College, sister college to Oxford's Christ Church and alma mater to six British prime ministers. We attend Evensong at King's College Chapel and then proceed to the Holiday Inn Express for check-in, with dinner on your own. (B)

DAY 4, Wed, Aug 2ESSEX/CAMBRIDGE

Today we trace the early life and ministry of Charles Spurgeon, beginning at his birthplace in Kelvedon. We visit Stambourne Congregational Church, where his father was pastor, and Artillery Street Evangelical Church, where his conversion took place in January 1850. From there we proceed to Isleham Ferry, the site of Spurgeon's baptism in May of that same year. We make a brief stop in Teversham, where he preached his first sermon to a group of locals in a cottage on High Street. Then we continue to Waterbeach Baptist Church, where Spurgeon took his first pastorate as a young man. Following our visit there, we return to our hotel in Cambridge for overnight, with dinner on your own. (B)

DAY 5, Thu, Aug 3CAMBRIDGE/LONDON

We depart Cambridge this morning and drive to London, where we see Metropolitan Tabernacle (originally called New Park Street Chapel), the church Spurgeon began serving at age 20 and where he pastored for 38 years. During his time there, he founded Spurgeon's College, which was named after him posthumously. We visit the college, taking time for lunch here (on your own). Then we meet with the Rev. Dr. Peter Morden, Vice Principal and Tutor of Church History & Spirituality. Dr. Morden is an expert on Bunyan and Spurgeon and has written biographies on both. After our time here, we continue to West Norwood Cemetery to visit Spurgeon's gravesite. From there we proceed to Queen's Gate Hotel for check-in, with dinner on your own. (B)

DAY 6, Fri, Aug 4LONDON

We begin today with a visit to Wesley's Chapel, known as the "Cathedral of World Methodism" and one of London's undiscovered jewels. Next to the chapel is John Wesley's House, where he lived the last 12 years of his life. Then just opposite the Chapel, we visit Bunhill Fields, the "outcast's" cemetery, reserved for those who refused to compromise their convictions and step in line with the established Church of England. Consequently, it has become a cemetery filled with some of the most famous names in Christendom, many whose preaching, writing and living have influenced many generations since for good. Among notables buried here: Isaac Watts, Susanna Wesley, John Bunyan, William Blake, Daniel DeFoe and John Rippon. Bunhill Fields was also the main burial ground for Quakers in the London area until 1857. Next we visit Westminster Chapel, founded in 1841 under the leadership of Rev. Samuel Martin and a beacon of hope in what was then one of London's poorest slums. From there we go to All Souls Langham Place, whose most well-known former cleric was John Stott, who served as rector from 1950 until 1975 and who then held the title "Rector Emeritus" until his death in 2011. We proceed to City Temple, where Joseph Parker pastored for 33 years, from 1869 until his death in 1902. We conclude our day at Westminster Central Hall, erected to mark the centenary of John Wesley's death. From there we return to our hotel for overnight, with dinner on your own. (B)

DAY 7, Sat, Aug 5
