FAQs

Are there still openings for AAI Abroad?

- AAI Abroad is first come, first serve with limited spots, but there are currently still openings! To ensure your spot, pay your deposit ($1000, non-refundable) as soon as possible! Once all spots are filled, anyone else who has been accepted and have not paid their deposit will be waitlisted.

What are the dates for AAI Abroad?

- AAI Abroad takes place in Summer II and is a 3-week term taking place from July 9th - 31st.

What is the cost breakdown?

- For students accepted to the program, CIEE course and instructor fees, housing, all museum and monument entrance fees, oyster cards and class daytrips are all generously paid for by our benefactors, The Allbritton Art Institute. As well, students will receive a scholarship for tuition. Students are only responsible for paying for their airfare, program fee ($1500), Study Abroad fee ($50/credit hour) and cost of living while abroad.

Are there any specific requirements or eligibility standards?

- Undergraduate students of any major may apply to participate in AAI Abroad. To be eligible to study abroad, students must have completed one year (30 credit hours) at Baylor prior to the departure date and maintain a 2.5 cumulative GPA. Student Conduct records will be reviewed to determine eligibility for participation.

When is the deposit due?

- March 15th

Can I get confirmations about my application and/or deposit?

- For questions regarding the application and/or deposit status, please contact the CGE.

How does financial aid work for study abroad programs?

- Financial aid applies to study abroad programs as it would for on-campus courses. Be sure to discuss your financial aid package with a Financial Aid advisor to determine how you aid applies to summer.

What scholarship opportunities are available?
• Since AAI Abroad is already providing scholarships for tuition and paying for many aspects of the program (see above for specifics), there will not be further scholarship opportunities from the Allbritton Art Institute. Scholarships are available through a variety of sources which students are encouraged to research and pursue. For more information on scholarships, contact the CGE or a financial aid advisor.

What credit will I receive for the art history course?

• ART 4354: British Golden Age (3 credits)

Will the course be with other Baylor students?

• Yes! This course will only be open to other Baylor students who have also been accepted into AAI Abroad. The class will be approximately 20 students and taught by a fully vetted faculty member from CIEE.

What are the living arrangements for students?

• Students will live in dorms or flats with 2-3 other AAI Abroad students. Housing is not co-ed.

Will the ART 4354 affect my GPA?

• Yes, AAI Abroad courses will count towards your Baylor GPA.
