

Online Teaching & Learning Services Team

- SPRING 2019 TRAINING SESSIONS -

SIGN UP AT: WWW.BAYLOR.EDU/CANVAS/

CANVAS 101 (2 SESSIONS)

January 8, Tues. 1:30PM – 2:30PM (Jones Library 105) and January 11, Fri., 10AM – 11AM WEBINAR, Neil Rodriguez
Need to brush up your Canvas course before the start of class? We can help! This hands-on workshop will review all the basic components of Canvas such as setting up your home page, using the gradebook, adding materials, and more.

VIDEO FOR ASSESSMENT: QUIZZES, FEEDBACK, & LIVE VIDEO

January 25, Fri. 9AM-10AM, Dr. John Solis (Jesse Jones Library Room 105)

Perhaps you've been using video to create lecture segments, but video can be used for so much more. See how to create interactive video quizzes, explore options for providing video feedback for instructors and peers, plus learn how to integrate synchronous video review & help sessions.

ALTERNATIVES TO PROCTORING – LUNCH & LEARN

February 6, Wed. 12:15 – 1:15PM, Dr. Becky Sue Parton (Catered Lunch & Learn, Creekmore room in Jesse Jones Library)

Are you concerned about cheating in your classes, but aren't sure how to address the issue? This session will be a dialogue about how we can design courses using a Christian approach to the topic that elevates the dignity of students while providing engaging & rigorous projects.

PROCTORIO: AN AUTOMATIC PROCTORING SOLUTION

February 19, Tues. 2-3PM, Dr. John Solis (Moody Library room G42)

Are you an instructor in a class that tends to be more oriented toward traditional exams and want to discourage dishonest behavior? Automatic proctoring is less expensive and more easily arranged than live proctoring. This session will showcase the Proctorio tool & its features.

OPEN EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES: LOCATING AND AUTHORING - WEBINAR

March 4, Mon. 10-11AM, Dr. Becky Sue Parton

Open Educational Resource (OER) materials are becoming more popular so this webinar will cover the basics of what they are, the pros/cons of using them, and where to find them. We will then look at a tool, Open Author, where you can create and share your own modules.

SCREENCASTS AND MICRO LECTURES – LUNCH & LEARN

March 21, Thurs. 12:30-1:30PM, Dr. John Solis (Catered Lunch & Learn, Creekmore room in Jesse Jones Library)

The Kaltura video tool in Canvas has enjoyed some upgrades this semester so join us for this session to see the new features and learn how to make screencasts and micro lectures for your course. Media creation with other tools may also be introduced.

INTERACTIVE COURSE ELEMENTS: ENGAGING LEARNERS THROUGH TECHNOLOGY

April 4, Thurs. 3:30-4:30PM, Dr. Becky Sue Parton (Jesse Jones Library Room 105)

If you are ready to "branch out" and infuse more technology and interactive engagement to your Canvas course, then this session will give you ideas and examples. We will cover the new Bongo video tool, H5P content, augmented reality, mobile delivery, and more.

CIDI LABS: DESIGN CANVAS COURSES LIKE A PRO - WEBINAR

April 17, Wed. 1:30-2:30PM, Dr. John Solis

Have you ever thought your Canvas course functions great, but doesn't look very inviting? If so, join us for an exciting look at Cidi Labs – a brand new design tool Baylor purchased. It is easy to use and can dramatically alter your course with templates, styled pages/icons, and organizing elements.

ACCESSIBILITY ONLINE: CAPTIONING AND MORE

April 30, Tues. 2-3PM, Dr. Becky Sue Parton (Jesse Jones Library Room 105)

We have a responsibility to make our courses as accessible as possible for all our students, but we may not often know how. This session is an overview of the most common accommodation we can address through instructional design and will demo the editing tool for video captioning.