

General Family and Consumer Sciences Minor

Twenty-one to Twenty-two semester hours including the following:

- A. FCS 1104 Professional Perspectives
- B. One course from each of the following:
 - ADM 1300 Fashion Theory and Consumer Behavior OR ADM 1311 Apparel Technical Design and Product Development
 - NUTR 1401 Introduction to Food Science OR NUTR 2351 Nutrition
 - FCS 1231 Principles of Art and Design as Applied to Family and Consumer Sciences OR ID 1332 Fundamentals of Interior Design
 - CFS 1315 Development of Individual and Family Relationships OR CFS 2355 Child Development
- C. Choose nine semester hours from junior and senior level (ADM, CFS, FCS, ID, or NUTR) courses in the Family and Consumer Sciences department. All prerequisites must be taken for upper-level courses.
- D. A grade of “C” is required for all courses in the minor.