

Education

ClinScD, Doctor of Clinical Science in Speech-Language Pathology, Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions, 2018

MA. Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology, South Carolina State University, 2001

B.A. Interdisciplinary Studies, University of South Carolina, 1995

Experience

- Speech-Language Pathologist, Lexington School District One-
Lexington, SC 2001 - present
- Evaluated and treated students in Elementary (2001-2013), Middle (2009-2012) and High school (2013-current) populations. Provided homebound speech services to students (2013-2014). Elementary and Middle school levels: provided interventions and therapy using a pull- out model in articulation, voice, fluency and language. Mentored and supervised colleagues (2006-2007, 2007-2009, 2013-2014). Supervised undergraduate and graduate students from Columbia College (2007-2008) and the University of South Carolina (2009-2010, 2017, 2018). Currently at the High school level: teach/provide therapy through classroom lessons (language, social language/pragmatics, functional language skills) using the push-in (classroom) and pull- out models. Also provide augmentative and alternative communication education and training to students, teachers, parents and staff.
- Professor, Communication Sciences and Disorders, Baylor
University 2019-present
Teaching Masters-level classes virtually: Evidence-Based Practice, Fluency Disorders, Methods/Research
- Speech-Language Pathologist, Columbia Speaks- Columbia, SC 2013-2014
Evaluated and treated preschool children in the areas of feeding, articulation and phonology within the home environment. Counseled and trained parents/caregivers within the home.
- Speech-Language Pathologist, Team Therapy-Columbia, SC 2012-2013

Evaluated and treated clients with feeding, swallowing, language, articulation and phonological delays/disorders. Led pragmatic/social language groups for school-aged children. Provided counseling and training to parents/caregivers. Supervised undergraduate student clinician from Columbia College.

• Speech-Language Pathologist, Palmetto Language and Speech Center- Lexington, SC

2007

Evaluated and treated preschool and school-aged clients in fluency, language, articulation and phonology. Led pragmatic/social language groups for school-aged children.

• Classroom Teacher, Lexington School District One - Lexington, SC

Third grade	1996-1997
Kindergarten	1997-2001

Scholarship

- Attended the South Carolina Speech-Language-Hearing Association Annual Convention- 2002-2016, 2019, 2020
- Attended the South Carolina Assistive Technology Expo- 2011-2016
- Attended Legislative Day for the South Carolina Speech-Language-Hearing Association - 2011-2013, 2019
- Presented at the South Carolina Speech-Language Hearing Association Board meetings- 2011-2013, 2018-2019, 2020
- Composed and edited articles for the “In-Touch” publication for the South Carolina Speech-Language Hearing Association- 2011-2013
- Composed/awarded grants for Special Olympics at Carolina Springs Middle School - 2010-2011
- Composed/awarded grants from the Lexington Sertoma club for speech therapy equipment (for students: Elephones, Talking Brix Communicators), program (“Sounds in Motion”-presented to district speech therapists at district meeting)-2004, 2005, 2015
- Presented awards for the South Carolina Speech-Language-Hearing

Association Annual Convention- 2012, 2013, 2019, 2020

- Facilitator-South Carolina Speech-Language-Hearing Association Annual Convention- 2012, 2013, 2019, 2020
- Doctoral Capstone Project-The Effect of Aided Language Stimulation on the Expression of Multi-Symbol Messages by Students in High School with Moderate Intellectual Impairment Who Use Augmentative and Alternative Communication -2018
- Williamson, J. C. (August 2018). The effect of aided language stimulation on the expression of multi-symbol messages by students in high school with moderate intellectual impairment who use augmentative and alternative communication. Poster session presented at the Scholarship Symposium of Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions, Provo, Utah and at The South Carolina Speech-Language-Hearing Association Annual Convention, Greenville, South Carolina.
- Attended the Council of State Associations Presidents Spring Conference, Little Rock, Arkansas, 2019
- ADOS trained, 2019
- “Ethics in the School System”-session presented at the South Carolina Speech-Language-Hearing Association Annual Convention, 2019.

Technological Skills

- South Carolina Department of Education Technology Proficiency (exams) -met – 2006-2017
- Train students, teachers, staff and parents on Assistive Technology devices (E.g.: Big Mac, Talking Brix, 7 Level Communicator, GoTalk, switches, iPads)
- Install/load/set-up/update Communication applications for students (E.g., Proloquo2Go, TouchChat); train students, teachers, staff and parents for the applications
- Proficient in: ENRICH, Smart Board technology, Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, Publisher, PowerPoint), social media (e.g., Facebook, Twitter)
- WebStudy Experience, 2016-2018
- Zoom platform experience, 2019-2020

Awards

- Honors of the Association (South Carolina Speech-Language-Hearing Association)-Team Therapy- 2013
- Academic Awards (South Carolina State University)- 1998-2000
- Ambassador of the Doctoral program, SLP-Cohort 4, Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions, 2018

Affiliations/Memberships

- American Speech-Language-Hearing Association- 2002-present
- South Carolina Speech-Language-Hearing Association- 2002-present

Leadership

- Vice-President of Education and Information, South Carolina Speech-Language-Hearing Association, Executive Board- 2011-2013
- ADEPT Supervisor/Evaluator of Speech Therapists (Lexington School District One) – 2007-2009, 2013-2014
- President Elect-Elect, South Carolina Speech-Language-Hearing Association, 2018
- LIFT Mentor of Speech Therapists (Lexington School District One) -2006-2007
- Coordinator of the University of South Carolina /Lexington School District One Speech Camp- 2006
- Medicaid Supervisor for Speech Therapists (Lexington District One) – 2013-2014; Medicaid referrals- 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019
- Supervisor of Undergraduate and Graduate Student Speech Clinicians- 2007-2010, 2012, 2017, 2018
- Ambassador of the RMUoHP Doctor of Speech-Language Pathology

Program-2016, 2017, 2018

- Content Expert for Doctoral Capstone Projects, Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions, 2019, 2020
- President-Elect and State Convention Chair, South Carolina Speech-Language-Hearing Association, 2019-2020
- ASHA Mentor, 2019
- Empower team, 2020
- President, South Carolina Speech-Language-Hearing Association, 2020-2021

Community Service

- Choir member/soloist (1978-1998), Sunday school teacher (1987-1995)- Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Leesville, SC
- Choir member/soloist, Ladies Circle member and Vacation Bible School Teacher (1998-present), Centennial Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, Columbia, SC
- Lexington Ladies service projects-2015
- Volunteer: Special Olympics, 2010-2011, 2015
- Volunteer/chaperone: Special Education field trips, 2014-2019
- Provided public information for the South Carolina Speech-Language-Hearing Association-pamphlets, new display board for the community- 2011-2013

Licenses

- South Carolina State License in Speech-Language Pathology
- American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA) Certificate of Clinical Competence
- South Carolina Teacher Certification: Speech-Language Therapist, Early Childhood Education, Elementary Education, Mentor