Child & Family Studies Minor 2022-2023

The Child and Family Studies Minor requires 18 semester hours.

A. Required core courses:

   CFS 1315 Development of Individual and Family Relationships
   CFS 2355 Child Development
   CFS 3356 Theories of Family Development
       Prerequisite: Upper-level standing
   CFS 4359 Parenting Theory and Approaches (Prerequisites: CFS 1315 and CFS 2355)

B. Complete six additional semester hours of “3000-4000” level CFS electives.

C. A grade of “C” or better is required in all courses used for the minor.

Contact Information:
Dr. Nicole McAninch
Clinical Associate Professor in Human Sciences and Design
Nicole_McAninch@baylor.edu
Ph. 254-710-4273