BOOKS IN PROGRESS

- A. The Prayerbook of Charles V: Imperial devotions on the eve of the Reformation.
 Medieval and Western Vernacular Manuscripts Series (Michelle Brown, series editor), Publications of Museum of the Bible. Brill, 2020 (anticipated).
 UNDER CONTRACT.
 Introduction (codicology and cultural-historical context), textual edition, and translation from the Latin of Charles' earliest, surviving illuminated prayerbook.
- B. Cicero, the Roman People, and the Rhetoric of Legitimacy in the Late Republic.
 Close readings of relevant speeches reveal how Cicero engages and shapes notions of "the Roman people," and how the orator frequently appeals to the people as both a remedy for failures of the governing class and as a source of legitimacy amid the Republic's quickening dissolution.
