Register for Outdoor Adventure Events

Wednesday, March 24: Backcountry Gourmet Cooking Clinic, 6-8:30 p.m. at the McLane Student Life Center patio area. You'll meet at the Rock and head over to the patio near the sand volleyball court. Come learn ways to bake breads, cookies, and pizza and how to light and operate a stove safely. Food, stove, pots, and pans will be provided. Wear comfortable clothing and tennis shoes. The cost is $15. The deadline to register is Tuesday, March 23.

Friday, March 26, to Sunday, March 28: Rock Climbing/Camping at Enchanted Rock State Natural Area at Llano, Texas. You'll meet at the McLane Student Life Center at 4 p.m. Come join us on a trip to Texas Hill Country to Enchanted Rock State Natural Area for a fun weekend of rock climbing and camping. The Enchanted Rock pink granite dome rises from the desert floor covering nearly a square mile. The panoramic views from the top are simply stunning. There is much history surrounding this rock of enchantment from the Spanish colonials, Native Americans, Wild West Outlaws, and the Adventurers of today. All participants will be required to attend a meeting on Thursday, March 25, 5 p.m. at the McLane Student Life Center Conference Room. The cost of $85 will include transportation, equipment, meals while camping, camp site fees, entrance fees, and instruction. Participants will be responsible for meals on the road. The deadline to register is Tuesday, March 23, at noon.

For additional information on any of these events, contact Amy_Violette@baylor.edu.
