

Minors

Minors consist of a minimum of 18 credit hours and may be added to complement a major, but are usually not required. Minors are interdisciplinary; therefore, they may be taken under any degree plan. Most minors originate in the College of Arts and Sciences. In the list below those originating in other academic bodies are indicated.

African Studies	Geography
American Studies	Geology
Anthropology	German
Arabic	Gerontology (School of Social Work)
Art History	Great Texts of the Western Tradition (Honors College)
Asian Studies	Greek
Astronomy	History
Astrophysics	Italian
Biochemistry	Latin
Biology	Latin American Studies
Business Administration (School of Business)	Linguistics
Chemistry	Mathematics
Child and Family Studies	Media Management
Chinese	Medical Humanities
Church Music (School of Music)	Middle East Studies
Classics	Museum Studies
Communication Science and Disorders	Music (School of Music)
Community Health (School of Education)	News Editorial
Computer Science (School of Engineering and Computer Science)	Nonprofit Studies (School of Business)
Corporate Communication	Nutrition Sciences
Creative Writing	Philosophy
Criminal Justice	Photojournalism
Dance (School of Education)	Physics
Earth Science	Political Science
Economics (School of Business)	Public Relations
Educational Psychology (School of Education)	Recreation Ministry
Engineering (School of Engineering and Computer Science)	Religion
English	Religion, Politics, and Society
Entrepreneurship (School of Business)	Rhetoric and Argumentation
Environmental Studies	Russian
Family Studies	Science (School of Education-for biology majors only)
Fashion Merchandising	Sign Language Interpreting
Film and Digital Media	Sociology
Forensic Science	Spanish
French	Statistics
Gender Studies	Studio Art
	World Affairs