The Academic Advising Council presents... the third annual

Day of the Advisor

“Coaching Our Students to Success”

Tuesday, February 23, 2010

Join us before the first session for coffee, pastries, and an opportunity to chat with your colleagues in the White Room 8:45—9:15 a.m.

second floor, Bill Daniel Student Center

Professional Development Sessions

“Stay in the Game! Don’t Get Sidelined!”

9:30 to 10:20 a.m. AND 10:30 to 11:20 a.m.
Beckham Room, second floor, BDSC
Our panel of experts will review the wide ranging resources available through Academic Support Programs, including tutoring, Supplemental Instruction, the Online Referral System, and the many workshops, seminars, and classes developed and offered by this department.

“Develop Your Winning Game Plan”

9:30 to 10:20 a.m. AND 10:30 to 11:20 a.m.
Houston Room, third floor, BDSC
Join us as we explore best practices in advising, ways to get the most out of the Unified Advising System, use of an advising syllabus, the many resources on the advising website, and various other practical aspects of academic advising at Baylor.

“Huddle With the Deans”

1:15 to 2:00 p.m.
Houston Room, third floor, BDSC
We will hear from the Deans’ offices in the various schools and colleges regarding use of the Unified Advising System, the importance of ensuring a smooth “handoff” as students transition from one advising area to another, and various other topics.

Please register to attend as many of these sessions as your schedule allows by accessing the POD website at http://www.baylor.edu/pod. You will find each session listed as a separate event.
