

The Academic Advising Council presents...

the fourth annual

Day of the Advisor

“Academic Advising Takes Center Stage”

Friday, February 25, 2011

Join us before the first session for coffee, tea, and an opportunity to chat with your colleagues in the White Room - 9:30 to 10:00 a.m.

second floor, Bill Daniel Student Center

Professional Development Sessions

“Preludes to Success: Pre-professional Programs”

10:10 to 11:00 a.m. AND 11:10 to 12:00 p.m.

Beckham Room, second floor, BDSC

Our two experts will discuss the vibrant prehealthcare and prelaw programs at Baylor. Learn more about how these programs are helping prepare many of our students for a successful experience in medical school or law school.

“Setting the Stage for Advising”

10:10 to 11:00 a.m. AND 11:10 to 12:00 p.m.

Baines Room, second floor, BDSC

Join us as a faculty advisor helps us “set the stage” for best practices in advising. We’ll review ways to get the most out of the Unified Advising System, explore the many campus resources available to advisors, and discuss the components of an effective advising session.

“Encore! Conversation with the Deans”

2:00 to 3:00 p.m.

Beckham Room, second floor, BDSC

Deans from the various schools and colleges will discuss topics of interest including “safety nets” for students who are not allowed to continue in a particular major or program. Don’t miss this opportunity to ask your questions and gather useful information.

Please register to attend as many of these sessions as your schedule allows by accessing the POD website at <http://www.baylor.edu/pod>.

You will find each session at each time listed as a separate event.
