

TEXAS INDEPENDENT FILM NETWORK

TEXAS FILMS. TEXAS THEATERS. TEXAS AUDIENCES. A TEXAS NETWORK.

FREE and Open to Everyone!
See something new ... See something different

Baylor University Film & Digital Media presents

TEXAS INDEPENDENT FILM NETWORK

TEXAS FILMS. TEXAS THEATERS. TEXAS AUDIENCES. A TEXAS NETWORK.

Spring 2012 Film Series

7:00 p.m. in Castellaw 101 FREE Admission!

Each screening will be followed by a Q&A with one or more special guests from the film's production!

1/19 Where Soldiers Come From

"A heartbreakingly lived-in portrait.... Packs a savage, but understated, punch."—Variety

2/9 Slacker 2011

"A charming, sometimes very funny snapshot of contemporary Austin."—Kimberly Jones, The Austin Chronicle

3/1 Documentary Double Feature!

Barbecue: A Texas Love Story & Something's Brewin' in Shiner

"Ann Richards ... brings another entertaining layer to an already effervescent documentary..."—Rory L. Aronsky, Film Threat

4/12 An Ordinary Family

"a gay 'coming out' story [that] gently merges family drama with many nicely realized comedic moments"—The Hollywood Reporter

<http://www.texasifn.com>

<http://www.baylor.edu/fdm>