Biographical Note:

William Tracy Early was born on 1934 February 20 in Snyder, Texas, to Willis Worley Early and Lillian Marian Walton Early. Tracy was the eldest of three children, one of whom died as a child. He was a member of the Royal Ambassadors, a Southern Baptist organization for young boys grades 1-6. Tracy published his first article in 1947 February for the Ambassador Life, the monthly magazine for the Royal Ambassadors. Tracy graduated Snyder High School on 1950 May 26.

Tracy attended Baylor University from 1950-1954 where he earned a Bachelor of Arts. While attending Baylor University, Tracy was a member of Columbus Avenue Baptist Church. In 1954, he attended a summer school session for American Students at the University of Oslo in Norway.

After graduating Baylor University, Tracy attended Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina. He graduated with a Bachelor's of Divinity on 1958 January 17. While attending Southeastern, Tracy was ordained as a Baptist minister on 1957 May 15 on the recommendation of the Wake Forest Baptist Church.

Tracy entered the United States Army as a Chaplain with the rank of First Lieutenant. He was appointed Chaplain on 1957 August 14 and served the 59th AAA Battalion at Fort Bliss, Texas for the duration of his commission. Tracy left active duty on 1959 August 16 and resigned his commission on 1960 February 15.

Upon leaving the Army, Tracy attended Union Theological Seminary in New York City where he earned his Doctor of Theology (which was later converted to a Doctor of Philosophy) on 1963 May 21. His dissertation was titled "The Doctrine of Revelation in the Theology of H. Wheeler Robinson."

From 1953-1963, Tracy preached and taught at various churches (see Sidebars, page 469 for a complete listing). Most notably Tracy was an interim minister for the youth at Rosemary Baptist Church in Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina in the summer of 1955. From June to mid-August 1961 he served as the interim pastor at Rocky Point Community Church Congregational in Rocky Point, Long Island, New York. Tracy also served as the interim pastor at the First Presbyterian Church in Nyack, New York, from November 1962-January 1963. Tracy began his first and only permanent pastorate on 15 March 1964 at the Urbanna Baptist Church in Urbanna, Virginia. While living in Urbanna, Tracy engaged in various community activities. He was elected Sunday School Superintendent of the Mid-Tidewater Baptist Association and served as the president of the Urbanna Chamber of Commerce. Additionally, Tracy wrote for several newspapers, most notably the Times-Dispatch in Richmond, Virginia. On 1968 August 25 Tracy preached his last sermon and resigned on 1968 August 31 when he moved to New York City to pursue writing.

In New York City, Tracy worked for the World Church Council as an assistant in the information office from 1968 September 24 to 1969 June 30. However, Tracy wanted to become a freelance journalist specializing in religious news. Tracy wrote for many different religious news services, including the National Catholic News Service (NC) which later changed to the Catholic News Service (CNS) until his death in 2005. Tracy also wrote for the Religious News Service, Interpretive Services, United Methodist Communications, North American News Alliance (NANA), and Ecumenical Press Service (EPS) (see Sidebars pages 499-500 for full listing of news services, published works, and years).

Tracy Early died on 2005 December 16 at St. Luke's Hospital in New York City. He was buried in Snyder, Texas on 2005 December 22.

Scope and Content:

The Tracy Early Collection was acquired through two gifts from Grady Gaston Early, brother to Tracy Early. This collection contains the professional and personal materials of William Tracy Early (Tracy Early).

This collection is comprised of newspaper and magazine articles, correspondence, diaries, photographs, books, sermons, newspaper clippings, and school work of Tracy Early, who was a Chaplain, pastor, and freelance journalist. A large majority of the collection is articles written by Tracy Early. Included with articles he wrote are research materials, newspaper clippings, notes, and correspondence that pertain to specific articles. Personal materials include correspondence to and from immediate and extended family members and personal diaries from 1948 until his death in 2005. This collection includes materials pertaining to Early's life at Baylor University, Southeastern Baptist Seminary, and Union Theological seminary including school work and notes from classes. There is also material regarding Early's time as an Army Chaplain and regarding the various churches where he was the pastor, most significantly the four years Early spent as the pastor of Urbanna Baptist Church in Urbanna, Virginia.

Organization and Arrangement:

Original order was by publisher, topic, or person, arranged generally by date (either forward or backward) within the folder. Original order was maintained as much as possible.

Series V. School Work, 1949-1969, 3.15 linear feet (7 boxes).

This series contains materials written by Tracy Early during his academic careers at Baylor University, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, and Union Theological Seminary. The materials have been organized by type then alphabetized according to the title of the respective work. Most of Early's works deal with theological issues such as Christian-Jewish relations, religion in politics, biblical exegeses, and discussions of famous theologians like John Calvin, Karl Barth, and Thomas Aquinas. Also included within the series is Early's doctoral thesis from Union Theological Seminary. The materials are in good to excellent condition.

Series VII. Books, 1939-2004, 0.9 linear feet (2 boxes).

This series contains an index citing all of the books belonging to the collection. Also included are photographs, clippings, and notes found within the pages of these books. Most of the books were gifts to Tracy Early and contain letters or acknowledgements to him. The majority of the books are available when searching on Bearcat. The notes are organized according to the author's last name. If this is absent, then the title of the work is considered. The materials are in good condition.

Notes:

Tracy Early kept all materials together relating to articles or subjects, including newspaper clippings, correspondence, research, notes and photographs. This original order is maintained. If noted # of #, this indicates that one of Tracy Early's original folders was divided into multiple folders. The first number is the number of the folder in the total and the second number is the total number of folders the original folder was divided into. If a folder has the same name and year, the material is arranged by date with the earliest in the first folder.
