

Minors

Minors consist of a minimum of 18 credit hours and may be added to complement a major, but are usually not required. Minors are interdisciplinary; therefore, they may be taken under any degree plan, with a few exceptions, as noted below. Most minors originate in the College of Arts and Sciences. In the list below, those originating in other academic bodies are indicated.

American Studies
Anthropology
Apparel Merchandising
Arabic
Art History
Asian Studies
Astronomy
Astrophysics
Aviation Science
Biochemistry
Biology
Business Administration (School of Business)
Chemistry
Child and Family Studies
Chinese
Church Music (School of Music)
Classics
Communication Science and Disorders
Community Health (School of Education)
Computer Science (School of Engineering and Computer Science)
Corporate Communication
Creative Writing
Criminal Justice
Dance (School of Education)
Earth Science
Economics (School of Business)
Educational Psychology (School of Education)
Engineering (School of Engineering and Computer Science)
English
Entrepreneurship (School of Business)
Environmental Studies
Family Studies
Film and Digital Media
Forensic Science (for students w/ science backgrounds)
French
Gender Studies
General Family & Consumer Sciences
Geography
Geology
German
Gerontology (School of Social Work)
Great Texts of the Western Tradition (Honors College)

Greek
History
Italian
Japanese
Latin
Latin American Studies
Leadership Studies (School of Education)
Linguistics
Mathematics
Media Management
Medical Humanities
Middle East Studies
Museum Studies
Music (School of Music)
News Editorial
Nonprofit Studies (School of Business)
Nutrition Sciences
Philosophy
Photojournalism
Physics
Political Science
Poverty Studies & Social Justice (School of Social Work)
Public Relations
Recreation Ministry
Religion
Religion, Politics, and Society
Rhetoric and Argumentation
Russian
Science (For Biology-Science Education majors only)
(School of Education)
Secondary Education (For Math Education majors only)
(School of Education)
Sign Language Interpreting
Sociology
Spanish
Statistics
Studio Art
World Affairs

(Revised by Natalie Terry & Linda Johnson on 4/20/2012)