

Progression of Skills and Values through a Baylor Education: One Possible Scenario

Skills and Values	Introductory	Intermediate	Advanced	Experiential
	Freshman	Sophomore	Junior-Senior	Freshman-Senior
Communication and Quantitative Skills	General Education	Essays and Presentations	Essays and Presentations in Major and/or at conferences on and off campus Advanced research /writing courses in major. Also writing courses such as BUS 3315 or ENG 3303	Maximizing Skills: Departmental Tutors, Writing Center & Success Center Selective Student-Life Opportunities
Critical Reasoning and Analysis	General Education	Research, team projects, essays, challenging courses	Major Courses	Undergraduate Research Internships
Intellectual Depth & Breadth, Integrative Learning	General Education Technology Moody and Jones Libraries	Meetings with Advisors & Professors New technology	Upper Level Electives Minor in Complementary Field New technology	Tutoring Social Networking Academic and Pre-professional Societies
Pro Ecclesia, Pro Texana (for the Church and World, through leadership and service)	Chapel U1000 Exploration of Major Fields of Study	Confirming Major and Vocation Meetings with Career Services experts	Example: Civic Education, CSS 3300 Compete for National and International Scholarships (Rhodes, Fulbright, Truman, etc.)	Study Abroad Work Volunteering Mission Trips PAWS Career Fairs
Christian Perspective and Ethics, including knowledge of Christian scripture and heritage	U1000 REL 1310 & 1350	General Education Campus Lectures and Exhibits	Examples: Courses in Bioethics, Moral Philosophy, Christian Ethics for Business, etc.	Church Involvement Bobo Spiritual Life Center

Activity Blank Matrix

Skills and Values	Introductory	Intermediate	Advanced	Experiential
	Freshman	Sophomore	Junior-Senior	Freshman-Senior
Communication and Quantitative Skills
Critical Reasoning and Analysis
Intellectual Depth & Breadth, Integrative Learning
Pro Ecclesia, Pro Texana (for the Church and World, through leadership and service)
Christian Perspective and Ethics, including knowledge of Christian scripture and heritage				