Processing Information

Described by Thomas DeShong and released on 2012-10-05.

Archivist's Notes: Albert Luper, Sr. and Fannie Mae Hawkins had five children: Albert Luper, Jr., Frances, Harold, James Daniel, and Ray Fernando.

Scope and Content

The Luper Family Papers were acquired in two separate gifts by Myrl Luper. The first gift, given by Myrl Luper via her daughter Judy Cooper, was received on 2007 June 22. The gift consisted of two bankers boxes. The materials in these two boxes were transferred to seven document boxes during processing. The second gift, which Myrl Luper donated on 2012 April 23, consisted of one large cardboard box, the materials of which were transferred into thirteen boxes in processing. The collection begins in 1909 with some of the earliest love letters exchanged between Albert Luper and Fannie Mae Hawkins. It ends with some recent family correspondence exchanged in 1990. Series III. Family Correspondence and Series IV. Literary Productions are the largest series in the collection with eight and five boxes respectively. Most of the materials in the collection deal with the Luper family's experiences in Brazil, Portugal, and central Texas. Some of the most common subjects recurring within the papers are Baptist missionary activities, family developments, education, the Great Depression, and World War II.

Administrative/Biographical History

Albert W. Luper and his wife, Fannie Mae Hawkins Luper, were Baptist missionaries who served churches in Portugal, Brazil, and central Texas from the 1920s to the 1950s.

Albert and Fannie Mae were already married when they received their degrees in 1919 May. Albert graduated from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary with a Master of Theology. Fannie Mae, listed as "Mrs. Albert Luper" on her diploma, graduated from the Baptist Women's Missionary Training School of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary on 1919 May 28 with a Bachelor's degree in Missionary Training.

From 1920 to 1922, the Lupers served as Baptist missionaries to Brazil. Fluent in Portuguese, the Lupers then moved to Lisbon, Portugal, to aid the spread of Baptist missionary efforts in Europe. For eight years, the couple struggled to earn a living from their missionary work at the small Third Baptist Church of Lisbon. The building itself was located in the slums of Lisbon, and the congregation was largely illiterate.

In 1930, as famine and economic depression swept across the United States and Europe, Albert became uneasy regarding his position in Lisbon. He informed the church elders that his financial supporters in central Texas could no longer afford to finance the church in Lisbon due to the Dust Bowl. The Lupers thus returned to central Texas where they remained for twenty-two years. The education of the Lupers' five children (Albert, Francis, Harold, James Daniel, and Ray Fernando) was also a motivating factor in the decision to move back to the United States. Albert pastored congregations in Corsicana, Texas, as well as the First Baptist Church of Oak Cliff near Dallas.

By 1951, Albert W. and Fannie Mae Luper decided to return to the mission field in Brazil. Working with the Baptist College in Belo Horizonte and Brazil's National Baptist Convention, the Lupers continued to devote their efforts to spreading the gospel.

Archival Arrangement

This collection was given as two separate gifts by Myrl Luper, the daughter-in-law of Albert and Fannie Mae Luper. Both gifts were completely unorganized. A boxlisting was prepared for each gift upon arrival. Overall, there are six series in the Luper Family Papers: I. General Correspondence, II. Portuguese Correspondence, III. Family Correspondence, IV. Literary Productions, V. Photographic Materials, and VI. Artifacts.
