Scope and Content

These materials were given as a gift from Francis' sons Frank and Clarence at an unknown time. There was also an addition that was later transferred from uncatalogued holdings.

The Francis Gevrier Guittard Papers range in chronology from 1811 to 1960, beginning with the story of the immigration of Guittard's ancestors. The materials then transition into his own life, beginning with his trek from Ohio to Texas. Guittard's pursuit of education is also well documented. Numerous diaries and notebooks reveal his intellectual development from his time at Baylor University, the University of Chicago, and Leeland Stanford University. The largest series, Series IV. Literary Productions, contains his own coursework, information about his travels, manuscripts prepared for publication, and other such materials.

Administrative/Biographical History

Francis Gevrier Guittard was born in New Bedford, Ohio, on 1867 January 7. His father, Dr. Francis Joseph Guittard, had immigrated from France at a young age after he refused to become a Catholic clergyman. The elder Guittard moved to Ohio where he met his wife Lydia Meyers. Young Francis was one of eight children born to the couple. In 1886, Francis was encouraged by his parents to set out for Texas in search of better prospects.

Guittard chose to pursue teaching as his lifelong vocation. He taught briefly in Tyler County, Texas, before he began taking classes at Baylor University. Guittard was ultimately unable to complete a degree there, but in 1897, he moved to Chicago to attend one of the nation's fastest growing history programs at the University of Chicago. He earned his Bachelor of Arts (1901) and his Master of Arts (1902) degrees at the ages of 34 and 35.

Guittard then returned to Texas in pursuit of academic employment. Baylor University President Samuel Palmer Brooks offered him a position in the history department, and Guittard remained in this position until his death, serving as the Chairman of the department for over forty years.

In 1906, Guittard married Mamie Welhausen. The couple had three children: Francis Gevrier, Jr. (1907), Charles Welhausen (1915), and Clarence Alwin (1917). Charles passed away one year after his birth, but the other two sons survived into adulthood. Mamie Guittard passed away shortly after the birth of Clarence in 1917. Francis remarried in 1920 when he wed Josephine "Mama Josie" Glenn.

Although Francis Guittard had secured his teaching position at a university, he was not satisfied with his level of education. In the 1920s, Guittard took courses at Leeland Stanford University in California, balancing his own schoolwork with his teaching duties. This hard work paid off in 1931, when Guittard, at the age of 64, earned his Ph.D. with his dissertation "Roosevelt and Conservation."

Dr. Guittard returned to Baylor University and devoted his time and effort to the education of his students. On April 28, 1950, Guittard passed away due to a heart attack. He was survived by his wife Josephine and his two sons, Francis and Clarence.

In 1959, the year following Josephine Guittard's passing, a fellowship was created by the will of Dr. and Mrs. Francis Guittard. The Guittard Fellowship continues to fund students who are pursuing history at the graduate level.

Archival Arrangement

This collection was fairly organized prior to this processing for this finding aid. The folder titles were, for the most part, helpful in identifying the types of materials in the collection. A corresponding folder inventory was also available.

There were no series level descriptions in the collection. This latest round of processing has relied upon the old level of organization with a few minor changes. There are now eleven series in the Francis Gevier Guittard Papers: I. Correspondence, II. Legal Documents, III. Financial Documents, IV. Literary Productions, V. Genealogical Materials, VI. Photographic Materials, VII. Artifacts, VIII. Certificates, IX. Scrapbooks, X. Maps, and XI. Classroom Records.
