Scope and Content

The Thomas L. and Pit Dodson Collection was acquired as a gift from Mrs. Clarabele "Pit" Dodson in 2010 November. The collection spans from 1710 to 1991 but is concentrated on the years 1890 to 1950. It includes a wide variety of materials, ranging from John Cook's Twelve Sermons published in 1710 to a scrapbook containing a collection of early-twentieth-century manuscripts. The early- to mid-twentieth-century prints and clippings constitute a large part of the collection and should be of interest to those researching art, fashion, and popular culture. The original gift consisted of approximately 100 books, 52 photographs, 574 postcards, 600 prints, 84 sheets of music, 13 scrapbooks, and 3 vinyl records. In their initial processing, the items were organized by type: prints, books, scrapbooks, slides, and literary productions. The prints, which constitute the bulk of the collection, were organized by subject or theme. The collection is now organized into four series: I. Literary Productions, II. Books, III. Photographic Materials, and IV. Scrapbooks. The thematic categories for the prints (which fall under series III. Photographic Materials) have largely been maintained.

Administrative/Biographical History

Thomas Larkin Dodson, Jr. was born in Texas on 1919 December 24. Dodson, Jr. served as a bomber pilot in the United States Navy during World War II. He was a veteran of the battles at Guadalcanal (Operation Watchtower), Iwo Jima (Operation Detachment), and Okinawa (Operation Iceberg). He subsequently worked, like his father, as a rancher in Wise County, Texas. He died in Fort Worth on 2005 January 22 and is buried in the Greenwood Memorial Park in the same city. He is survived by his wife, Clarabele "Pit" Steele Dodson and their son, Thomas Larkin Dodson III.

Pit was born on 1925 September 17. She and her late husband have been longtime donors to the Cook Children's Medical Center in Fort Worth. The Dodson Specialty Clinics building at the Cook Children's Medical Center, dedicated on 2012 March 1, is named in their honor. Pit is a Trustee Emeritus of the Cook Children's Health Foundation.

A proud Texan with a passion for history, Pit is both a collector and family historian. Her efforts in this regard produced the Thomas L. and Pit Dodson Collection

Archival Arrangement

After arriving at The Texas Collection, this collection was organized by type: prints, books, scrapbooks, slides, and literary productions. The prints, which constitute the bulk of the collection, were organized by subject or theme. An inventory was made at this time, simply counting the number of each type of item. The collection is now organized into four series: I. Literary Productions, II. Books, III. Photographic Materials, and IV. Scrapbooks. The thematic categories for the prints (which fall under series III. Photographic Materials) have largely been maintained.

Administrative/Biographical History

This series consists of photographs, cards, die-cut clippings, drawings, slides, silk screens, and – especially – prints and clippings. These prints and clippings, from the late nineteenth to mid twentieth centuries, constitute the bulk of this series and are a useful record of American popular print culture. The slides are relatively recent (1960s-1990s) pictures from around the world.
