Archival Arrangement

Prior to this latest round of processing, an inventory had been completed, but the materials themselves were not arranged according to a previous organizational scheme. The materials are in good to excellent condition.

After reviewing the inventory, the materials were arranged into four series: I. Literary Productions, II. Awards and Certificates, III. Photographic Materials, and IV. Audio Recordings.

Series 1: Literary Productions. 1940-2010, undated

Administrative/Biographical History

Series I. Literary Productions contains books, essays, notebooks, programs, and other materials that show Reverend Griffin's involvement among Texas Baptists as well as his struggle for African American civil rights. Particularly prominent are Griffin's notebooks and scrapbooks that he collected. Topics of these binders include Austin schools, the African American Baptist church, and various church programs such as Sunday School and the radio broadcasts that Griffin led. The materials in this series are in good to excellent condition.

Archival Arrangement

The materials within this series are organized alphabetically according to the type of material. Notebooks have been taken apart, and the individual pages have been stored in the corresponding folders.
