Coffee, Tea, and Time to Chat - 9:45 to 10:10 a.m.
(Second Floor Foyer, Bill Daniel Student Center)
Share a cup of coffee or tea and some conversation with your colleagues before the first sessions begin.

“Defining At-Risk” - 10:10 to 11:00 a.m. AND 11:15 to 12:05 p.m.
(Baines Room, second floor, Bill Daniel Student Center)
Facilitator: Dr. John Knue, Senior Lecturer, ISY Department, Hankamer School of Business
Presenters:  Ron English - Academic Support Advisor for Referrals, Academic Support Programs
Jeanette Kucera - Associate Director of Counseling, Student Financial Aid Office
Dr. Jim Marsh - Director of Counseling Services, Counseling Services
This concurrent session will feature several Baylor staff members who are able to help us examine our current definitions of “at risk” students. They will lead a discussion regarding the various factors that can cause a student to find himself at risk academically, emotionally, financially or otherwise.

“Recalculating the Route” - 10:10 to 11:00 a.m. AND 11:15 a.m. to 12:05 p.m.
(Gregory Room, second floor, Bill Daniel Student Center)
Facilitators: Mike Gerhardt, Paula Marshall - Academic Advisors, Academic Advisement
Presenters:  Rosanne Fuller - Assistant Director, College of Arts and Sciences Advisement
Jane Lin - Program Coordinator, Office of Prehealth Studies
Ken Tebbe - Academic Advisor, School of Education
Pat Weaver - Director of Career Counseling, Office of Career and Professional Development
What happens to students if things don't go exactly as planned and they must “recalculate their route”? Academic plans nearly always change at least once for most students. Sometimes students are well-equipped to handle these changes but in some instances it’s a change they never saw coming.

Luncheon and Keynote Speaker - 12:15 – 1:30 p.m.
(Barfield Drawing Room, second floor, Bill Daniel Student Center)
