Processing Information

Scope and Content
The Wichita Falls Symphony Records were acquired at an unknown date. The collection begins in 1962 and ends in 1966. Records include correspondence about various events hosted by the orchestra, board meeting minutes, bylaws of the group, and lists of participants in the symphony orchestra.

Administrative/Biographical History
The Wichita Falls Symphony Records document the still-active Wichita Falls Symphony Orchestra Inc. in Wichita Falls, Texas, during the 1960s. Founded in 1947, the Wichita Falls Symphony Orchestra has consistently offered quality artistic concerts to North Texas. During the 1960s, the time period of this collection, the orchestra's board was concerned with something still familiar to musical groups: how to raise money to stay in operation. The minutes also describe the board's work to schedule concerts and fundraisers throughout the year. Through their hard work, the symphony continues to operate today, providing quality musical entertainment to the Wichita Falls community.
