The Cornelia Marschall Smith Professor of the Year Award Nominations

Baylor University announces the 11th annual Cornelia Marschall Smith Professor of the Year Award, to be awarded to a Baylor faculty member who makes a superlative contribution to the learning environment at Baylor, including teaching which is judged to be of the highest order of intellectual acumen and pedagogical effectiveness, research which is recognized as outstanding by the national and/or international as well as local community of scholars, and service which is regarded as exemplary in building the character of intellectual community at Baylor. Nominations are requested from all faculty, students, and alumni nominating their former teachers. Nominations of nominees from previous years are welcome. Nominations must be submitted to the candidate's dean by 5 p.m. on Friday, November 8, and must include:

- A letter of nomination from the nominator, telling why the candidate deserves the award
- A letter from the candidate agreeing to be considered for the award
- A curriculum vitae from the candidate

For additional information, contact James Bennighof at James_Bennighof@baylor.edu or 254-710-6500.

PAWPRINTS

PAWPRINTS enables you to print documents from any computer on the Baylor network to networked printers located across campus. To use PAWPRINTS, follow these simple steps:

Why We Should Study the Reception History of the Bible

Tuesday, October 15, 4 p.m. in Kayser Auditorium. Recent decades have seen a strong renewal of interest in how early Christians read the Bible. But their approach to the Bible was often very different - confusingly different - from how the Bible is studied today. This lecture by Dr. Peter W. Martens, professor of theology at St. Louis University, will focus on one of the most prolific interpreters of Scripture in early Christianity, Origen of Alexandria. How did he envision the project of biblical scholarship, and how was this project so different from biblical scholarship today? For additional information, contact Andrew_Selby@baylor.edu.

Baylor Business Professional Development Program Marketing and Sales Career Fair

Wednesday, October 16, 4 p.m. in Cashion, Room 510. Explore career options and network with individuals in different industries. Use this opportunity to gather valuable interview and job search advice from seasoned, business professionals. If you are enrolled in a sales or marketing course, consult your course syllabus, as many courses require attendance and/or provide course credit for attending. The dress is business. Be sure to have your resume in hand for internship and/or career opportunities and your Baylor ID (attendance registered via card swipe). For additional information, visit www.baylor.edu/business/selling/pdp.

Active Minds Interest Meeting

Wednesday, October 16, 5 p.m. at the Baylor Sciences Building, Room C123. This organization is dedicated to raising mental health awareness and reducing the stigmas associated with mental illness. For additional information, contact Zach_Warman@baylor.edu.

THIS WEEK IN STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Student Government Vacancies

There is a Student Senate vacancy in the Junior Class. Applications are available online at <http://www.baylor.edu/sg> and are due to Dominic_Edwards@baylor.edu.

Passport Waco

The Office of the External Vice President will be launching Passport Waco which gives you a chance to win an iPad by visiting stores and restaurants around Waco. Passports will be available in the Student Government office for you to pick up.

Monday Healthy Tip

Pick proper portions. Restaurants want to give you more for your money, but the portions they serve are often much more than anyone should eat in one sitting. Restaurant foods also tend to be overloaded with salt, fat, sugar, and calories, which can lead to weight gain. You can cut calories before they arrive at the table by foregoing the bread basket, asking for a child's size or half order, or by making your own meal out of side salads, soups, steamed veggies and appetizers. If you do get a full-size entree, listen to your body's natural cues and stop eating when you're full. Take steps to reduce your restaurant portions this week. It's important not to overindulge simply because you're eating out: enjoy the portions and meal choices that you would normally eat at home.

Hot Opportunities
