Career and Professional Development Events

Tuesday, September 23, and Wednesday, October 1: Mock Interviews with College Recruiters. A mock interview is a practice interview and one of the very best ways to prepare for an actual employment interview and a way you can improve the way you present yourself. These 30-minute interviews are meant to be as realistic as possible. You will be asked interview questions that would be asked by actual employers. Note: you will need to upload a resume into your HireABear account prior to signing up for a mock interview.

Tuesday, September 23: Land the Job Cram Session, 5-6 p.m., at the Baylor Sciences Building, Room D110. Gain last minute advice before the big career fair and receive a free Southworth Career Starter Kit. The speaker will be Gala Jackson, The Millennials' Resume Writer and Career Consultant. Event is presented by Southworth.

Wednesday, September 24: HireABear Career Fair, 12:30-4:30 p.m. at the Waco Convention Center, 100 Washington Avenue. Baylor's Office of Career & Professional Development is hosting a university-wide career fair. This fair is for students seeking internships and graduating students looking for their first professional job. Employers from profit, nonprofit, government, and educational industries recruiting Baylor students in all academic fields will be present. Recruiters from over 135 companies will be in attendance to talk about their internships and entry-level career positions. While some companies do seek specific majors, the majority of companies are open to all majors. For a list of attending organizations, visit www.myinterfase.com/baylor/Search/ViewEmployers/Index/b014SWpsUk5LYWdMVIcyNTItMk1XaFR4Ui9IczNCZmV3Tk9malBhK0ZKT01.

Register for Texas Hunger Initiative Summit Breakout Sessions

The Texas Hunger Initiative is hosting a national hunger and poverty summit on campus from Wednesday, October 1, to Friday, October 3 in the SBU. The breakout sessions are free to all students. Students can attend sessions of their choice to learn more about hunger in America and how they can become a part of the solution. Make plans to join us as we come together to exchange ideas, strengthen partnerships, and move closer to our goal of ending hunger and, ultimately, poverty. For a full schedule of the breakout sessions, visit www.baylor.edu/texashunger/index.php?id=99454. For additional information or to register, contact Nawrin_Rahman@baylor.edu.

Campus Recreation Safety Education

CPR/AED certification is being offered weekly. This is a 2.5 hour course in which the student will learn techniques such as Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) and how to deal with airway obstructions for choking situations. These important skills are demonstrated and described for the adult, child, and infant casualty. Following successful completion of the course, participants are issued Course Completion Card that is valid for two years. For additional information on dates, times, and cost, visit www.baylor.edu/campusrec/aquatics/index.php?id=73696.

Monday Healthy Tip from Monday Campaigns

Exercise can provide energy. Ever feel “too tired to exercise” in the morning or after work? It’s more likely that you’re emotionally tired and unmotivated. Look past this initial reaction and follow through with your fitness plans; your body will appreciate the short-term energy boost and stamina that comes with physical activity. Challenge yourself to fight fatigue and stick to your exercise routine this week. Note how refreshed and energetic you feel after your workout.
