Nominations for the 2015 Light Your World Award

Each year, the men of Phi Kappa Chi hold their Light Your World Banquet. This event is an effort to meet with professors and faculty outside the classroom and honor them for the impact and difference they have made in students' lives academically, personally, professionally, and spiritually. Phi Kappa Chi wants to recognize other professors at Baylor at this year's banquet. All Baylor students have the opportunity to nominate a professor to receive the award. The selected professor and the student who nominated them will be guests of honor at the banquet on Wednesday, April 1, where the award will be presented. Visit <http://goo.gl/forms/XH2C1wTsuY> for a short questionnaire where you will give the professor/faculty member's name and a short explanation of why he/she deserve the award. Nominations are due on Wednesday, March 25, by 12 noon. For additional information, contact Jacob_Plett@baylor.edu.

Nominations for the Diversity Enhancement Award

The Campus Diversity Committee is accepting nominations for the 2015 Diversity Enhancement Award. This award is given to individuals (faculty and staff), organizations, or programs within Baylor University that strengthen and promote respect for diversity through innovative leadership, service, practices, or programs designed to enhance a climate of understanding and respect throughout the campus community. In 2014, the Diversity Enhancement Award was presented to Baylor SIA, a national Latina-based sorority founded in 1990. Previous recipients were Dr. Jonathan Tran, Professor of Religion and Faculty-in-Residence at Brooks Flats, 2013; Dr. Mia Moody-Ramirez, Associate Professor of Journalism, Public Relations and New Media, Graduate Studies Director and Director of American Studies, 2012; Bill Dube, Senior Director of Stewardship and Retired Professors and Administration Program for University Development, 2011; and Dr. Robert Darden, Associate Professor of Journalism. Any Baylor student, faculty, or staff member may submit a nomination form, with two additional letters of support for the nominee, in one single packet to the following address:

Campus Diversity Committee
Attention: Julie Stelley
One Bear Place #97048
Waco, TX 76798-7048

The deadline for submission is Wednesday, April 1. Materials can also be submitted to Campus_Diversity@baylor.edu. For additional information, contact Julie_Stelley@baylor.edu.

Monday, March 23: Service Project with Jesus Said Love to Volunteer at the Wild Torch Gala! 10:30 a.m.-10:30 p.m. at the Hippodrome

Tuesday, March 24: In Plain Sight Documentary Screening and Guest Speaker, 6-8 p.m. in Marrs McLean, Room 101. The Office of Community Engagement & Service and Student Activities presents: IN PLAIN SIGHT, a documentary that features six modern-day abolitionists as they fight sex trafficking across America. Journeying to six US cities, the documentary opens the viewer's eyes to what's happening down the street "in plain sight". Through engaging interviews with numerous victims of sex trafficking, the force, coercion, and deception of the children and women becomes apparent. In the midst of the darkness, stories of hope and freedom emerge as each survivor shares how she was impacted through the work of a sex trafficking aftercare home. This event is co-sponsored by Baylor International Justice Mission.
