

Baylor Speech-Language & Hearing Clinic
Supplemental Case History: Aphasia
ADULT

Client's Name: _____

Speech and Language History

When did the present speech difficulty begin? _____

What was your speech like at that time? _____

How has it changed? _____

Were you right or left handed before the present illness or accident? Right _____ Left _____

The following items are very important for helping us plan our test procedures so as to keep the time spent in evaluation at a minimum. Please check as carefully as possible those items you can and cannot do.

Language and Speech

I CAN

I CANNOT

| | | |
|---|--|--|
| Indicate meaning by pointing or gesture | | |
| Say a word if I write it first | | |
| Repeat words spoken by others | | |
| Articulate sounds | | |
| Say words | | |
| Say short phrases | | |
| Say short sentences | | |
| Talk without using a "roundabout" way of getting meaning across | | |
| Speak with relative fluency | | |
| Be easily understood | | |
| Relate a story read or seen on television | | |
| Carry on a telephone conversation | | |

Comprehension

I CAN

I CANNOT

| | | |
|---|--|--|
| Understand single spoken words | | |
| Understand simple spoken sentences | | |
| Understand conversational speech with one person | | |
| Understand conversational speech with several persons | | |
| Follow radio or television speech | | |
| Understand spoken directions | | |
| Recognize objects | | |
| Understand the use of these objects | | |
| Understand everything I listen to | | |

ReadingI CAN*I CANNOT

| | | |
|---|--|--|
| Read signs with understanding | | |
| Read numbers with understanding | | |
| Read single words with understanding | | |
| Read newspaper headlines with understanding | | |
| Read magazine articles with understanding | | |
| Read books with understanding | | |
| Tell time | | |

WritingI CAN*I CANNOT

| | | |
|----------------------------------|--|--|
| Copy numbers, letters, or words | | |
| Write my name by myself | | |
| Write single words by myself | | |
| Write short sentences by myself | | |
| Write personal letters by myself | | |
| Write creatively by myself | | |