Notes about major requirements:

– The Great Texts program is an interdisciplinary program that explore the richness and diversity of the Western intellectual heritage. The centerpiece of the program is a major and minor concentration of studies which students may select as the focus of their undergraduate education. Students pursuing this major will find a sustained curriculum in the greatest works of human intellectual and creative achievement which will be a profound asset in any profession or graduate study.

– *Students completing World Cultures I, II, III and IV in the Baylor Interdisciplinary Core may petition for credit for GTX 2301 and 2302. Note: Cultures I-IV cannot be applied to any other major/minor option.

– Check your degree audit often through Bearweb to ensure that you are making timely progress toward your degree.

– For more information, see the undergraduate catalog.

*Because of the number of electives, there is enough room for a minor with this major.
