id you hear the one about PBS airing a comedy series? It's no joke, but it is funny. On three consecutive nights, PBS presents MAKE 'EM LAUGH: THE FUNNY BUSINESS OF AMERICA, a six-hour comedy epic showcasing the most hilarious men, women and moments in American entertainment and why they made us laugh. Hosted by funnyman Billy Crystal and narrated by Amy Sedaris, the documentary explores the currents of American comedy throughout a century of social and political change, illuminating how comedy has tackled and poked fun at our political system, race relations, gender issues and the prevailing American standards and taboos in everyday life.

MAKE 'EM LAUGH: THE FUNNY BUSINESS OF AMERICA airs Wednesdays, January 14-28, 2009, 7:00-9:00 p.m. on KWBU-TV, with repeat broadcasts immediately following.

Get Ready for Digital TV

Are you ready?

The television industry is approaching a historic moment; on Tuesday, February 17, 2009, the nation's TV broadcasters will complete their transition to an all-digital format. Digital television (DTV) is a newer, more efficient, broadcast technology that offers viewers dramatically clearer pictures and better sound than the traditional analog system.

This change will affect millions of households that only receive over-the-air signals, as well as those that have secondary over-the-air TV sets in their bedrooms and/or kitchens.

Viewers who do not subscribe to a paid cable or satellite service and do not have a digital tuner inside their television will need to take one of the three steps outlined below to continue watching TV after the transition.

- 1. Purchase a TV set with a built-in digital tuner
- 2. Subscribe to cable, satellite or other pay TV service

3. Purchase a DTV converter box for your existing TV set

Questions? email: dtvinfo@kwbu.org call: 254/710-HDTV (4388)

Digital-to-analog converter boxes receive digital over-the-air signals from your antenna, convert them to analog and then send the signals to your existing analog television set. Through March 31, 2009, all U.S. households are eligible to request up to two $40 government-sponsored coupons to off-set the price of the boxes, allowing viewers to continue watching free over-the-air television on their older analog sets.

In a half-hour special, GET READY FOR DIGITAL TV, PBS has joined with THIS OLD HOUSE's Norm Abram and Kevin O'Connor, along with Maria Hinojosa, award-winning senior correspondent with NOW on PBS, to offer digital television how-to guidance and tips to ensure that viewers across America are prepared to successfully make the switch to digital television in their homes before the analog shutoff in February 2009. GET READY FOR DIGITAL TV will air on KWBU-TV Sunday, January 18 at 9:30 p.m.

Listings for KWBU are as accurate as possible at print deadline. However, because some shows are offered to us - or withdrawn - on short notice, there may be changes to the actual broadcast schedule. We air scheduling information during breaks between programs and on our website to provide information about changes.

Saturday Marathons In January on Create[™] TV

Spend your Saturdays with themed marathons

Create[™] TV 's Saturdays are filled with a full day of how-to programs focusing on a specific theme. Explore a country, from history to food. Prepare for a holiday, from traditions to recipes. There's a Create Saturday to fit any lifestyle. See marathon descriptions below.

January 3: Jacques' Day

Today is all about Master Chef Jacques Pepin. See what fires him up to cook! While his specialty is French food, he'll be teaming up with some of his culinary contemporaries like, Maryann Esposito of Ciao Italia and Rick Bayless host of Mexico – One Plate at a Time. You'll also see Jacques in a candid conversation with violin virtuoso Itzhak Perlman. It's Jacques' Day!

January 10: Spain...On the Road Again

What do you get when you put an Oscar winning actress, a Master Chef, a culinary author and a Spanish actress, driving in a car across a European country? You get the fun series, Spain...On the Road Again, starring Gwyneth Paltrow, Mario Batali, Mark Bittman and Claudia Bassols. This foursome takes us all over Spain to eat, explore and learn. It's the road trip of a lifetime!

January 17: Caught on Canvas

Nature is all around us, and our CREATE artists have caught every beautiful detail of it on canvas. Bob Ross, Donna Dewberry, Gary Spetz and others, paint their way into our hearts with flowers, waterfalls and beach scenes that are absolutely breathtaking. Bring nature to life on your own canvas. Our CREATE artists will show you how.

January 24: Tropical Getaways

Spend the day with CREATE globe trekkers, Burt Wolf, Rudy Maxa, and Darley Newman as they travel to Hawaii, Mexico and the U.S. Virgin Island. All day fun in the sun is waiting for you!

January 31: Tailgating Time

The big game is coming up, and whether you're having a parking lot party or folks in your home, we'll show you how to prepare a tailgating menu that will have your guests, licking their fingers and wanting more! Grill masters Steven Raichlen and Rick Browne have the barbecue pit fired up. They'll have perfectly cooked steak, chicken wings and shrimp. While chefs Chris Kimball and Rick Bayless prepare simple dishes, like chili and tacos that will feed a big crowd. If your team isn't winning who cares, you'll have good food to get you through the fourth quarter.

Wait Wait...Don't Tell Me!

The Oddly Informative News Quiz from NPR

NPR's Wait Wait...Don't Tell Me! takes a fast-paced, irreverent look at the news of the world—and the weird. Now in its sixth year, the show offers a modern and sometimes raucous twist on the old-time radio quiz show, mining NPR news stories for quiz questions. The host is Peter Sagal, who is an award-winning playwright and father of three in his spare time. America's favorite newscaster, NPR's Carl Kasell, is the show's official judge and scorekeeper.

Each week, Sagal quizzes the panelists and listeners to determine just how closely they paid attention to the week's news. He serves up questions in all forms: lightning rounds, tape from NPR news shows, multiple choice, identify the "fake" story and fill-in-the-blank limericks. Listeners call 888-WAIT-WAIT for a chance to win the most coveted prize in all of public radio: a custom-recorded greeting by Carl Kasell for their home's answering machine or voice mail.

One of the most popular segments is "Who's Carl This Time?" in which Mr. Kasell recites quotes from the week's newsmakers as contestants guess whom he is impersonating. "This is the only show where you'll get to hear NPR's most senior newscaster impersonate Britney Spears," the Wait Wait producers say. Another signature Wait Wait... Don't Tell Me! game, "Not My Job," invites well-known local and national personalities to answer questions that are out—way out—of their area of expertise.

A rotating trio of witty panelists completes the Wait Wait team. They include author and humorist Roy Blount Jr., Boston Globe writer Charlie Pierce, Washington Post columnist Roxanne Roberts, writer/performer Adam Felber, BBC contributor Sue Ellicott, author P.J. O'Rourke, comedian Paula Poundstone and humorist/ pundit Mo Rocca.

Wait Wait...Don't Tell Me! is a co-production of NPR and Chicago Public Radio. The program, created by the same folks who produce Car Talk, debuted nationally in 1998 and quickly established itself as one of public radio's favorite weekend programs.

Visit the show's Web site at http://waitwait.npr.org to take the weekly news quiz, meet the panelists and crew, and check out five years of archived shows.

Listen to Wait Wait...Don't Tell Me! on Saturdays at 10:00 a.m. and Sundays at 1:00 p.m. on member supported 103.3 KWBU-FM.
