Check Out the New Current Students Page!

Your new current student homepage will launch in a matter of days! Baylor hopes you find the site significantly improves the accessibility of essential resources, providing a single-stop for electronic news, events, online directory, and links to timely information essential to current students. You'll find the previous list of links has been organized into a left navigation with slide-out menu function, news, and events organized in the middle of the page, hot links and callout boxes on the right to draw your attention to some of the more timely resources and events of interest to students, and a new message center atop the page that rotates every five seconds through a daily Bible verse, photo galleries, video feeds, and University-wide special events. The content will change daily, even hourly, so we hope you use the site often. Take a sneak peak at the new site at www.baylor.edu/currentstudents.html.
