

A revised Honor Code was released at the beginning of the Spring 2007 semester

Fall 2006 Honor Council Report

During the Fall 2006 semester, the Honor Council chair mediated in several cases of academic dishonesty, one of which could not be resolved between the student and faculty member and therefore resulted in a hearing. The results of the hearing were:

Alleged Violation: False information about taking an exam / Providing false evidence.

Decision: Guilty

Sanction: Suspended.

Spring 2006 Honor Council Report

During the Spring 2006 semester, the Honor Council chair mediated in several cases of academic dishonesty. However, none resulted in a hearing.

Fall 2005 Honor Council Report

During the Fall 2005 semester, the Honor Council chair mediated in several cases of academic dishonesty, one of which could not be resolved between the student and faculty member and therefore resulted in a hearing. The results of the hearing were:

Alleged Violation: Falsification of an academic document

Decision: Guilty

Sanction: Expulsion from Baylor University