

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

SEMESTER	OFFENSE	FACULTY OR HONOR COUNCIL DECISION	SANCTION
Spring 2007	Student copied answers from the Scantron form of another student during the Final Exam in Finance.	Faculty	Received an "F" in the course.
Summer 2007	None.
Fall 2007	Student obtained information from neighbor's papers during an examination period in Business.	Faculty	Received a zero on the exam.
Fall 2007	Student looked repeatedly at the answer sheet of another student during an exam in Business.	Faculty	Received a zero on the test.
Fall 2007	Student cheated on an exam in Teacher Education by attempting to obtain and by obtaining answers from a nearby student's paper.	Faculty	Received notice from the instructor that she was aware of the cheating incident, and all professional points for the course were deducted (20 points).
Fall 2007	Student copied from another student during a quiz in Math.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Fall 2007	Student cheated on an exam in Speech Communication.	Faculty	Received an "F" in the class.
Fall 2007	Student looked at another student's test during a short essay exam in Management Information Systems.	Faculty	Received a grade reduction on test resulting in D or F for class.
Fall 2007	Student repeatedly looked at a neighboring student's exam during an exam in Business.	Faculty	Received a zero on final exam.
Fall 2007	Student looked at another student's answer sheet while taking the final exam in Business.	Faculty	Received a ".05" on the exam.
Fall 2007	Student received handwritten answers to the third exam in Economics from another student prior to taking the exam. Student then used the answers while taking the exam. Subsequently student passed the exam answers on to a third student through text messages.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

Fall 2007	Student copied the answers from another student's exam in Economics and then provided those answers to a student who was taking the same exam at a later time.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Spring 2008	Student copied answers from another student during a quiz in Accounting.	Faculty	Received a "0" on quiz.
Spring 2008	Student failed to follow the instructions of professors by repeatedly looking onto an exam paper belonging to a student in front of student during an exam in Business. In addition, student obtained information from that paper which student used on student's own exam.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Spring 2008	Student failed to follow the instructions of professors by repeatedly looking onto an exam paper belonging to another student during an exam in Business.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Spring 2008	On multiple occasions student looked onto another student's CPS response pad and copied answers during quizzes in Business.	Faculty	Received a "0" on 14 quizzes.
Spring 2008	Student was observed on numerous occasions speaking or communicating with another student during quizzes in Business. Additionally, student claimed to have given student's cell phone to the student next to him during a quiz, which is in violation of instructions included by the professor in the syllabus for the class and given verbally prior to the exam. When questioned by the professor about the matter on several subsequent occasions, student created and maintained a false story to attempt to explain or justify the use of the cell phone in class.	Faculty	Received a "0" on 6 quizzes.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

Spring 2008	Student was seen in possession of a mobile device during a quiz in Business in violation of instructions included by the professor in the syllabus for the class and given verbally prior to the exam. In addition, student was observed on several occasions speaking with another student during quizzes, which is also a violation of instructions from the instructor. When questioned by the professor about the matter on several subsequent occasions, student created and maintained a false story to attempt to explain or justify the use of the cell phone in class.	Faculty	Received a "0" on six quizzes.
Spring 2008	Student looked onto a neighboring student's exam paper in violation of the professor's instructions and copied answers from that paper during an examination in Business.	Faculty	Received a zero on the exam.
Spring 2008	Student assisted another student without the permission of the instructor during the final exam in Family and Consumer Sciences.	Faculty	Received an "F" in the course.
Spring 2008	Student received text messages during the final exam in Marketing.	Honor Council	NOT GUILTY
Summer 2008	Student copied answers from another student during a test in Psychology.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the test.
Fall 2008	Student looked at the exam paper of and copied answers from another student during an exam in Sociology.	Faculty	Retook exam under supervision and had opportunity to earn points for the exam.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

Fall 2008	On several occasions during the fall 2008 semester, student looked at the CPS response pad of and copied answers from another student during quizzes in Business. Student also talked with the student beside him during one quiz in violation of the instructions from the professor.	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" on the quizzes.
Fall 2008	On several occasions student looked at the CPS response pads of other students while taking quizzes in Business in violation of clear instructions given by the professor.	Faculty	Received a "0" on six quizzes.
Fall 2008	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Student copied two problems from the exam of the person sitting next to student during an exam in Statistics. 2. Student switched exam forms for an exam in Statistics by taking the exam form off of another student's desk prior to that student's arrival and leaving first student's form on that student's desk. In addition, student was seen trying to look at the exam paper of the student sitting next to student. 	Faculty	Received a "0" on problems that were copied and received a "0" on second exam.
Fall 2008	During an exam in Religion student copied almost the entire exam from the student sitting beside student who had a different version of the exam.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Fall 2008	On several occasions student switched exams with another student in Religion and copied from the neighbor's exam.	Faculty	Received a "0" for 3 exams.
Fall 2008	On two separate occasions student switched exam papers with another student and copied answers from the neighbor's exam in Religion.	Faculty	Received a "0" on two exams.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

Fall 2008	On multiple occasions student looked onto a neighbor's paper during quizzes in Business and obtained answers from that student. In addition, this behavior was done in violation of clear instructions from the professor.	Faculty	Received quiz grades of "0" for 6 quizzes.
Spring 2009	During an exam in Business, student arrived late to a quiz (during the 6th question of a 9 question quiz) and then was observed looking onto the Scantron of a neighboring student and copying answers from that Scantron.	Faculty	Received a "0" on first six quiz grades.
Spring 2009	Student looked at other students' papers during quizzes in Spanish.	Faculty	Received a grade of "F" for 3 quizzes.
Spring 2009	During a quiz in Business student was observed looking onto the response pad of a neighboring student. In addition, student's pattern of answers on quizzes dating back to late January, 2009, showed a high correlation with that of the other student.	Faculty	Received an "F" in the course.
Spring 2009	During a quiz in Business, student was observed looking onto the response pad of a neighboring student. In addition, student's pattern of answers on quizzes dating back to late January, 2009, shows a high correlation with that of the other student.	Faculty	Received an "F" in the course.
Spring 2009	Student repeatedly looked at another student's paper during a quiz in Spanish.	Faculty	Received an "F" on the quiz. Required to take all future written exams at front of classroom in seat provided by professor.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

Spring 2009	Student left an exam in Psychology with an exam booklet in violation of instructions given by the professor. In addition, although the exam booklet student took from the room was Exam B, student completed an Exam C Scantron, and student's answers were almost identical to those of the student sitting next to student, who had an Exam C booklet and Scantron. There is also evidence that student completed an Exam C version of two previous exams rather than completing Exam B as assigned to student.	Faculty	Received an "F" in the class.
Spring 2009	Student left the room during the final exam in Environmental Studies and stayed out for an extended period of time - at least half an hour. When student returned to the classroom, student was given a new blue book and a new copy of the test, but answers indicated that student changed some of student's prior answers. In addition, student falsely wrote a note to the professor on the test stating that student was out of the room for only seven minutes.	Honor Council (2 nd Violation – Automatic Referral)	Received an F in the course plus required to complete a 2000 word essay on the lives of Socrates, Mother Theresa and Nelson Mandela and what it means to live a life of integrity. Failure to satisfactorily complete the assignment will result in suspension for the Spring 2010 semester.
Spring 2009	Student referenced information written on student's shirt sleeve during a makeup midterm exam in Greek.	Faculty	Received an "F" on the exam and an "F" in the course.
Fall 2009	Student used unauthorized materials to complete a placement quiz to determine whether student would have to take Experimental Design during the Fall 2009 semester.	Faculty	Received a verbal warning.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

Fall 2009	Student looked onto his neighbor's response pad on multiple occasions during opening quizzes in Business and obtained answers from that student. In addition, this behavior was done in violation of clear instructions from the professor.	Faculty	Lost last 6 quiz grades.
Fall 2009	During a quiz in Marketing, student used a cell phone to access information about the quiz.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the quiz.
Fall 2009	During an exam in Religion, student looked onto and copied test answers from the paper of another student.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the exam.
Fall 2009	Student looked repeatedly at a neighboring exam paper during an exam in Business.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Fall 2009	Student repeatedly looked onto neighboring exam papers during an exam in Business.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Fall 2009	On multiple occasions student looked onto a neighbor's response pad and obtained answers during opening quizzes in Business. In addition, this behavior was in violation of clear instructions from the professor.	Faculty	Lost eight quiz grades.
Fall 2009	Student looked at and obtained information from another student's exam during the final exam in Business.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the final exam.
Spring 2010	During an exam in Math, student looked at and copied an answer from the exam of a student sitting in front of student.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam, final will no longer replace an earlier exam, and not able to drop passing.
Spring 2010	Student looked onto the exam of a neighboring student during the first exam in Business in violation of explicit instructions from the professor. In addition, student obtained answers from that student's exam.	Honor Council (2 nd Violation – Automatic Referral)	Received a permanent "F" in the course.
Spring 2010	Student contacted another student via email during a quiz in Engineering and exchanged	Faculty	Received an "F" in the course.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

	answers with that student.
Spring 2010	Student contacted another student via email during a quiz Engineering and exchanged answers with that student.	Faculty	Received an "F" in the course.
Spring 2010	While taking an exam on a laptop computer in Engineering, student copied answers from the exam of another student.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Spring 2010	Student was observed looking onto the paper of another student during the first portion of an exam in Hebrew. In addition, student's answers on that portion of the exam are almost identical to that of the other student.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Spring 2010	Student copied answers from another student during the final exam in Chemistry. In addition, student answered questions for a form of the exam student did not have, but for the same form as the other student had.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the final exam.
Spring 2010	Student repeatedly looked onto another student's exam during the Business final exam in violation of explicit instructions given by the professor.	Honor Council	Received an "F" on the final exam.
Spring 2010	During the final exam in Nursing, student looked onto the exam of another student and copied answers from that student's exam.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the final exam resulting in an "F" for the course.
Summer 2010	Student copied answers from the exam scantron of another student in Psychology.	Faculty	Received an "F" in the class.
Summer 2010	Student copied answers from the exam scantron of another student in Psychology.	Faculty	Received an "F" in the class.
Fall 2010	Student copied answers from another student during a reading quiz in Religion.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the quiz.
Fall 2010	Student copied answers from another student during a reading quiz in Religion.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the quiz.
Fall 2010	Without authorization from the professor, student used an electronic device containing a	Faculty	Received a "0" on the test.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

	list of verb conjugations for different tenses during a test in Spanish.
Fall 2010	On multiple occasions student looked onto a neighboring student's response pad during opening assessments in Business in violation of professor's instructions.	Faculty	Lost six quiz grades.
Fall 2010	During a test in Psychology, student looked at another student's test paper repeatedly. In addition, student copied answers from that student's test.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the test and was required to take all subsequent tests at the front table in the classroom.
Fall 2010	During an exam in Management, student looked at neighbor's exam paper.	Honor Council	Received an "F" in course.
Fall 2010	Student shared answers with other students during a test in Electrical and Computer Engineering.	Honor Council	Charges dropped after further investigation.
Fall 2010	Student obtained answers from other student during a test in Electrical and Computer Engineering.	Honor Council	Charges dropped after further investigation.
Fall 2010	Student obtained answers from other student during a test in Electrical and Computer Engineering.	Honor Council	Charges dropped after further investigation.
Fall 2010	On several occasions prior student looked onto the response pad of another student during opening quizzes in Business in violation of instructions given by the professor. In addition, when confronted by the professor about the actions, student misrepresented facts about the incidents to the professor.	Honor Council	Received a permanent "F" in course. Grade will remain calculated in GPA.
Fall 2010	During a test in Religion student looked onto the test of another student and copied answers from that student.	Faculty	Received a failing score on test score at the end of the semester. The actual score will be determined by performance in the remainder of the course.
Fall 2010	Student submitted for credit in Neuroscience a quiz containing the exact answers of the adjacent student, indicating that accused	Faculty	Received a "0" for the quiz.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

	student gave, received or obtained information from the other student during the quiz. In addition, student failed to follow the instructions of the professor in completing the quiz, knowing that by such conduct student would obtain an academic advantage.
Fall 2010	Student submitted for credit in Neuroscience a quiz containing the exact answers of the adjacent student, indicating that accused student gave, received or obtained information from the other student during the quiz.. In addition, student failed to follow the instructions of the professor in completing the quiz, knowing that by such conduct student would obtain an academic advantage.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the quiz.
Spring 2011	1. During a quiz in German student looked at another student's exam. In addition, when the professor stepped out of the room, student asked others for an answer to a question on the exam, had the text book open on the floor, and looked at the text book. 2. During a quiz in German student had text book open on the floor and looked at it.	Honor Council (2 nd Violation – Automatic Referral)	Received an "F" for the course.
Spring 2011	During a test in Religion, without authorization from the professor, student used a study guide, had a text book open on student's lap, and looked onto the exam Scantron of another student.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the test.
Spring 2011	Student allowed another student to copy student's Art Event which student submitted for credit in Art. In addition, student allowed the same student to copy from student's quiz in the same course.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2011	During a test in Religion, student looked at	Faculty	Received a "0" on the test.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

	another student's test several times.
Spring 2011	During a test in Physics, student copied answers from another student's test. In addition, this was the second test for the course on which student had copied answers from another student.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Spring 2011	Student submitted for credit in Physics a test paper that was nearly identical to those of two other students indicating that student either copied from or shared answers with one or both of these students. In addition, this was the second test that was nearly identical to the other two.	Honor Council	Not Guilty
Spring 2011	Student submitted for credit in Physics a test paper that was nearly identical to those of two other students indicating that student either copied from or shared answers with one or both of these students. In addition, this was the second test that was nearly identical to the other two.	Honor Council (2 nd Violation – Automatic Referral)	Received an "F" in the course and suspended for one semester.
Spring 2011	During a final online assessment in Business student looked onto and obtained information from the computer screen of another student.	Faculty	Received a loss of 50% of grade on the assignment.
Spring 2011	Student attempted to copy answers from another student on the Final Exam in Religion.	Faculty	Received a "D" in the course.
Summer 2011	Student emailed a solution on a take-home midterm exam in Accounting to another student in the class before the exam was due in violation of instructions given by the professor.	Honor Council	Received an "F" for the course.
Fall 2011	On two different occasions student wrote material on the desk in Biology and used it during a quiz.	Honor Council	NOT GUILTY.
Fall 2011	During an exam in Sociology student looked at	Faculty	Received no credit for the exam.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

	and obtained answers from another student's exam.
Fall 2011	Student repeatedly looked at and copied work off another student's exam during the final exam in Physics.	Honor Council	Received a permanent "F" for the course, but may retake the course.
Spring 2012	Student submitted answers on an exam in Engineering which were the same as those of another student sitting near student, even the solutions and the way they were written, indicating that student copied from that other student.	Faculty	A report of the incident was submitted to the Office of Academic Integrity.
Spring 2012	On numerous occasions student copied answers from another student during quizzes in Biology.	Faculty	Forfeiture of extra points, participation points and ability to drop any low grades in course.
Spring 2012	Student copied work from another student during a test in Physics.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the test.
Spring 2012	On several occasions student looked onto the response pad of another student during opening quizzes in Business in violation of instructions given by the professor.	Faculty	Lost the last 8 quiz grades.
Spring 2012	Student submitted for credit in Economics a test that was almost the same as that of another student, having received help from that student without the permission of the professor.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the test.
Spring 2012	Student submitted for credit in Economics a test that was almost the same as that of another student, having shared work with that student without the permission of the professor.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the test.
Spring 2012	While taking a test for credit in Sociology at the Office of Access and Learning Accommodation (OALA), student used a cell	Faculty	Received a "0" for the test.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

	phone and accessed information regarding the test in violation of instructions given by OALA.
Spring 2012	Student looked repeatedly at another student's exam during an exam in Psychology.	Faculty	Required to move to the front row to complete the exam.
Spring 2012	During an exam in Biology student copied answers from another student.	Honor Council	Received a "0" on the exam, will forfeit any extra credit points given to the class at the end of the semester, and will not be allowed to drop any low grades.
Spring 2012	During a test in Theater student copied answers from another student.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the test.
Spring 2012	During the final exam in Religion student copied answers from another student.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the final exam.
Spring 2012	During the final exam in Health Education student looked at a neighboring student's scantron and copied answers onto student's own scantron.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Spring 2012	Student was observed stating that student was going to cheat during the final exam in Philosophy and then was observed taking out a phone and writing down notes during the exam.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the exam.
Summer 2012	None.
Fall 2012	Student was observed looking directly at the test and scantron of another student during an exam in Religion.	Honor Council (2 nd Violation – Automatic Referral)	Received a permanent "F" for the course, but may retake the course.
Fall 2012	During an exam in Engineering, student copied one or more solutions from another student.	Honor Council (2 nd Violation – Automatic Referral)	Received a "0" on the exam and suspension for one semester.
Fall 2012	Student looked at the exam paper of another student during an exam in Environmental Science and copied answers.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Fall 2012	Student copied from another student during an exam in Chemistry. In addition, student answered questions for a version of the exam that student did not have.	Honor Council (2 nd Violation – Automatic Referral)	Received a "0" for the exam.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

Fall 2012	During an exam in Music, student looked at the exams of two other students and obtained answers from at least one of them which student then used on student's exam.	Honor Council	Received a "0" on the exam.
Fall 2012	Student copied answers from another student's scantron during an exam in Marketing.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Fall 2012	Student looked at the work of another student multiple times during a test in Math and used answers obtained from that student's work on the test.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the test.
Spring 2013	Student copied from another student during the final exam in Physics. In addition, student answered questions for a version of the exam that student did not have. Student also misrepresented facts to the professor about the test in order to gain an academic advantage.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam. Student received an "F" in the course and will not be allowed to repeat the course.
Spring 2013	Student copied answers from another student during an exam in Engineering.	Faculty	The matter was reported to the Office of Academic Integrity and a record of the violation will remain on file.
Spring 2013	Student looked onto the response pad of another student during an opening assessment in Business in violation of instructions given by the professor. Student obtained at least one answer from that student. This same pattern was observed on at least four other weekly opening assessments. In addition, student had already received a written warning from the professor about having a cell phone visible during opening assessments in violation of his instructions.	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" for 8 daily quizzes.
Spring 2013	On several occasions student looked onto the response pads of other students during	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" on the last 8 quiz grades.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

	opening assessments in Business in violation of instructions given by the professor.
Spring 2013	Student attempted to copy another student's answers during an exam in Physics.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Spring 2013	Student copied an answer from another student during an exam in Physics.	Honor Council (2 nd Violation – Automatic Referral)	Received a permanent "F" in the course (Will stay in GPA but may retake the course for credit).
Spring 2013	Student was seen looking at another student's exam during the lab final exam in Biology. In addition, student obtained and used answers from the other student's exam.	Faculty	Received counseling from professor and a "0" for the Lab Final.
Spring 2013	Student copied answers from another student's exam during the final exam Religion.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the final exam.
Spring 2013	Student allowed another student to copy answers from student's exam during the final exam in Religion.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the final exam.
Spring 2013	Student looked repeatedly at the exams of other students during the final exam in Religion.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the final exam.
Summer 2013	None.
Fall 2013	Student looked repeatedly at another student's paper during a quiz in Spanish.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the quiz.
Fall 2013	During a quiz in Business, student made audible vocal remarks indicating the answer to one of the questions on the quiz in violation of instructions from the professor.	Faculty	Lost quiz points for the day.
Fall 2013	Student was observed copying answers from the quiz of another student in Business. This behavior had been observed on other occasions during the prior two week period in class. In addition, the other student was asked to enter incorrect answers on a quiz, and accused student's answers exactly duplicated those incorrect answers. When questioned by	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

	the instructor about the matter, instead of taking responsibility for student's actions, student lied to the professor about what had happened.
Fall 2013	During a makeup exam in History which professor allowed student to take unproctored based on student's written promise to obey the Honor Code prior to beginning the exam, student copied answers verbatim from Wikipedia into the exam without proper identification or crediting the original author. In addition, student accessed outside materials (Wikipedia) during the exam, which was not authorized by the professor.	Honor Council (2 nd Violation – Automatic Referral)	Received an "F" for the course and suspended for one semester.
Fall 2013	During an exam in Accounting, student gave answers to and/or received answers from another student in the class without the permission of the professor.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Fall 2013	During an exam in Accounting, student gave answers to and/or received answers from another student in the class without the permission of the professor.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Fall 2013	Student copied answers from the quiz of another student in Business. This behavior had been observed on multiple other occasions beginning early in the semester.	Honor Council (2 nd Violation – Automatic Referral)	Received a permanent "F" for the course, and is not eligible to retake the course.
Fall 2013	Student was seen looking at and copying the work of two different students during a Learning Celebration (exam) in Sociology.	Honor Council	Pending
Fall 2013	Student was seen looking at and copying the work of two different students during a Learning Celebration (exam) in Sociology.	Faculty	Received a 20% reduction on the grade for the exam.
Fall 2013	During an exam in Sociology student looked at	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

	another student's exam and obtained answers from that exam.
Fall 2013	During an exam in Physics, student looked at another student's exam and obtained answers from that exam.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the final exam and a reduced grade of a "C" (instead of a "C+") in the class.
Spring 2014	During an exam in Psychology, student looked at another student's exam and obtained answers from that exam.	Honor Council	NOT GUILTY
Spring 2014	Student copied answers from one or more other student's exams during an exam in Accounting.	Honor Council (2 nd Violation – Automatic Referral)	Received an "F" for the course and suspension for two semesters. May not transfer coursework to Baylor completed elsewhere during this time.
Spring 2014	During an exam in Human Performance, student looked at another student's exam and obtained answers from that exam.	Faculty	No sanction was given since student dropped the class, but the violation was reported to the Office of Academic Integrity.
Spring 2014	During an exam in Theater Arts, student looked at another student's exam and obtained answers from that exam.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam with no option for retake and will not be allowed to sit next to friends during future exams.
Spring 2014	Student used a smart phone to answer questions on a quiz in Medical Humanities.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the quiz and is ineligible to receive honors in the course.
Spring 2014	Student assisted another student in Electrical and Computer Engineering on a take-home exam without the permission of the professor.	Faculty	No sanction other than the violation report on record.
Spring 2014	While completing a take-home exam in Electrical and Computer Engineering, student received assistance from another student in the class without the permission of the professor.	Faculty	Exam grade was reduced to 50% of what it would have been.
Spring 2014	During an exam in Engineering, student obtained information from another person without the permission of the professor	Faculty	Received no grade for the exam and the weight of other grades in the course was increased to compensate.
Spring 2014	During an exam in Engineering, student obtained information from another person or shared information with another person without the permission of the professor.	Honor Council	Received an "F" on the exam and an "F" for the course.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

Spring 2014	During an exam in Engineering, student obtained information from another person or shared information with another person without the permission of the professor.	Honor Council	Received an "F" on the exam and an "F" for the course.
Spring 2014	During an exam in Engineering, student obtained information from another person or shared information with another person without the permission of the professor.	Honor Council	Received an "F" on the exam and an "F" for the course.
Spring 2014	During an exam in Engineering, student obtained information from another person or shared information with another person without the permission of the professor.	Honor Council	Received an "F" on the exam and an "F" for the course.
Spring 2014	Student used a phone to look at answers during the final exam in Lifetime Fitness.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the final exam.
Spring 2014	During an exam in Sociology, student obtained answers from another student. In addition, this pattern of behavior had been observed on at least two other occasions.	Faculty	Received an "F" for exam 3 and exam 4.
Summer 2014	During a test in Math student copied answers from another student's test.	Faculty	Pending
Fall 2014	During an exam in Chinese student looked at another student's exam sheet.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Fall 2014	During an exam in Sociology student copied answers from another student's exam.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Fall 2014	During an exam in Neuroscience student repeatedly looked at another student's exam and copied answers from it.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Fall 2014	Student used a phone and a cheat sheet to look at answers during an exam in Greek.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Fall 2014	During an exam in Electrical and Computer Engineering student copied from the work of another student.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the exam.
Fall 2014	During the final exam in Biology student copied answers from another student.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the exam and for the course.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

Fall 2014	During an exam in Neuroscience student copied answers from another student.	Honor Council (2 nd Violation – Automatic Referral)	Received a permanent "F" for the course.
Fall 2014	During an exam in Sociology student copied from another student who had a different version of the exam.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Fall 2014	During an exam in Psychology student repeatedly looked at another student's exam. In addition, student had been seen committing the same behavior on an earlier exam for the course.	Honor Council	NOT GUILTY
Spring 2015	Student obtained answers from another student on a quiz in Latin.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the quiz.
Spring 2015	Student copied from another student during an exam in Economics. Additionally, when initially questioned about the matter by the professor, student lied by denying that student cheated on the exam.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Spring 2015	Student copied from another student during an exam in Physics.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Spring 2015	Student copied from another student during an exam in International Business.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the exam.
Spring 2015	In violation of the professor's instructions, student had a cell phone in student's lap while taking an exam in Biology. During the exam student was observed looking at the phone repeatedly and then writing answers on the exam.	Faculty	Exam was picked up and student was asked to leave the room. This exam will be the ""drop exam"" under the course policy, and the violation was filed with the Office of Academic Integrity.
Spring 2015	Student copied from another student or students during three different exams in Biology.	Honor Council	Received an "F" for the course.
Spring 2015	On or about April 27, 2015 student copied from another student during a quiz in Neuroscience.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the quiz, student not allowed to drop any low grades, and professor's support of application for Society of Neuroscience was withdrawn.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

Spring 2015	Student copied from another student during the final exam in Computer Science.	Honor Council (2 nd Violation – Automatic Referral)	Pending
Spring 2015	During the final exam in Health Education, student allowed another student to copy answers from student's exam. Further investigation showed that this occurred on two other tests given earlier in the semester in this course.	Honor Council	Not Guilty
Spring 2015	Student copied from another student during the final exam in Health Education. Further investigation showed that this occurred on two other tests given earlier in the semester in this course.	Honor Council	Not Guilty
Spring 2015	Student copied from another student during the final exam in Communication Sciences and Disorders.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the final exam.
Summer 2015	During the final exam in Political Science student accessed information without the professor's permission.	Honor Council	Pending
Summer 2015	During an exam in Spanish, student had an iphone in possession and was accessing it without the professor's permission.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Fall 2015	During an exam in psychology student looked repeatedly at the exam of another student.	Honor Council	NOT GUILTY
Fall 2015	During an exam in Chinese, student left the room to go to the restroom where student was found looking at a smart phone without the permission of the professor.	Honor Council	NOT GUILTY
Fall 2015	Student used an electronic device to access information not authorized by the professor during the midterm exam in English, and the midterm exam contained passages taken word	Honor Council (2 nd Violation – Automatic Referral)	Received a permanent "F" for the course. In addition, Council recommended that student seek individual instruction from the Success Center, the Writing Center, and/or the Office of Academic Integrity to learn what plagiarism is and how to avoid it.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

	for word or in substance from the work of another without properly identifying said passages or crediting the original author(s).
Fall 2015	Student copied from other students during an exam in Biology.	Honor Council	Received a "0" for the exam.
Fall 2015	Student looked at mobile phone during an exam in Management Information Systems.	Honor Council	Received no credit for the multiple choice portion of the exam.
Spring 2016	Student copied from another student during a quiz in Chemistry.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the quiz.
Spring 2016	Student looked at the work of another student during a quiz in Political Science.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the quiz and required to leave a seat between student and other students.
Spring 2016	Student copied from another student during an exam in Mathematics.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam and the grade may not be replaced by the final exam.
Spring 2016	On or about March 22, 2016 student looked at the exam of another student and copied answers from that student during an exam in BIO 4307.	Honor Council (2nd Violation – Automatic Referral)	Received a permanent "F" for the course and suspended for two semesters.
Spring 2016	Student copied from another student during a test in Business. Additionally, student repeatedly failed to comply with the directives of the professor to move to a different seat in the room.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Spring 2016	Student copied from another student during an exam in Nutrition.	By Faculty and Honor Council (2nd Violation – Automatic Referral)	Received a permanent "F" in the course. May retake the course for credit, but grade remains in GPA. Any subsequent violation will result in immediate suspension for one long semester plus the summer.
Spring 2016	Student used electronic notes while taking a quiz in Neuroscience.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2016	Student copied answers from another student during a quiz in Statistics.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the quiz.
Spring 2016	During an exam in Biology student was seen looking at the exam of another student.	Faculty	Will be seated on the front row, isolated from other students, during the final exam for the course.
Summer 2016	None.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

Fall 2016	On three occasions in the same course, student copied answers to exams from other students in Chemistry	Honor Council	Received an "F" for the course.
Fall 2016	During an exam in Environmental Sciences/Biology student looked at mobile phone in violation of instructions from the professor, attempted to obtain information from the phone, and was dishonest with professor when first confronted about the incident.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Fall 2016	While taking an exam on Canvas for Business student accessed websites other than Canvas, without the permission of the professor, to search for answers to exam questions.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the exam.
Fall 2016	Student used smart phone to look up notes and answers to questions during an exam in Marketing.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the exam.
Fall 2016	During an exam in Sociology, student was seen looking at and copying answers from the test of another student.	Honor Council	Received an "F" for the course.
Fall 2016	During an exam in Sociology, another student copied answers from student's exam, or student copied answers from the other student's exam.	Honor Council	Received an "F" for the course.
Fall 2016	Student looked at the exam of another student and obtained answers from that student during an exam in Religion.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the exam.
Fall 2016	While taking an exam in Electrical and Computer Engineering, student looked at other students' exams and altered student's work.	Faculty	Was allowed to retake an alternate version of the exam with a point deduction. In addition was required to write an essay about what student learned from the incident and have a discussion with the professor about the essay, military leadership, Air Force and Navy Core values, and integrity.
Fall 2016	On two different occasions while taking exams	Honor Council	NOT GUILTY

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

	in Anthropology, student looked at other students' exams in an attempt to obtain answers.	(2nd Violation – Automatic Referral)
Fall 2016	During the final exam in Italian, student was found with the review packet for the final exam hidden within the pages of the exam. On at least two other occasions during exams for the same course student was observed looking at a cell phone between legs.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Fall 2016	During the final exam in Speech Communication student looked at mobile phone in an attempt to obtain answers.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the exam and the course.
Spring 2017	During an exam in Chemistry student repeatedly looked at the exam of another student and copied answers from it.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Spring 2017	During the final exam in Chemistry, student looked repeatedly at a neighbors' exams and made answers available for others to view. This behavior also occurred on two other exams in the same course.	Honor Council	Received an "F" for the course.
Spring 2017	During the final exam in Chemistry student looked repeatedly at a neighbor's exam. This behavior also occurred on two other exams in the same course.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Spring 2017	During the final exam in Chemistry student looked repeatedly at a neighbor's exam. This behavior also occurred on two other exams in the same course.	Honor Council (2nd Violation – Automatic Referral)	Received an "F" for the course and probation until graduation. Another violation will result in automatic suspension.
Spring 2017	During the final exam in Chinese student looked at a smart phone and the exam paper of the student next to student in an attempt to obtain answers.	Honor Council	NOT GUILTY
Spring 2017	During the final exam in Latin, student looked at a phone to access information	Faculty	Failed the course for other reasons.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

	about the exam.
Spring 2017	During an exam in Biology student continually looked at the exams of other student(s) in spite of being warned by the professor along with the rest of the class.	Honor Council	NOT GUILTY
Spring 2017	In violation of instructions from the professor, student gave unauthorized assistance to another student during class time in Political Science with an exam that was to be taken outside of class.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment. Any subsequent violation in the course will result in an "F" for the course.
Spring 2017	In violation of instructions from the professor, student received unauthorized assistance from another student during class time in Political Science while working on an exam that was to be taken outside of class.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment. Any subsequent violation in the course will result in an "F" for the course.
Spring 2017	Student copied work on two occasions from the exam of another student during exams in Physics.	Faculty	Received an "F" for one exam and required to retest for the other exam.
Spring 2017	Student allowed another student to copy from student's exam in Physics on two occasions.	Faculty	Received a points penalty and was reported to the OAI.
Spring 2017	During student's Biology class student was seen looking at student's phone and copying answers that had been provided to student by another student to an online pre-lab quiz that was not due until the next day.	Faculty	Forfeited all the online pre-lab quiz points for the semester.
Spring 2017	Student was seen opening and looking at "quizlet" (material not authorized by the instructor) during an exam in Management Information Systems.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the exam.
Spring 2017	Student was seen looking at the exams of other students multiple times by multiple witnesses during an exam in Biology.	Honor Council	Received a "0" for the exam.
Spring 2017	During an exam in Speech Communication,	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.

GIVING OR OBTAINING UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (8)

Giving, receiving, or obtaining information pertaining to an examination during an examination period, unless such action is authorized by the instructor giving the examination.

	student was observed looking at and scrolling through student's cell phone.
Spring 2017	Student copied work from the exam of another student during an exam in Accounting.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Spring 2017	During the final exam in Political Science, student looked at the exam of a neighbor and copied answers.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the final exam.
Spring 2017	During more than one test in Mathematics and during the final exam, student concealed a cell phone in the leg of student's shorts and looked at it in violation of instructions from the professor.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the final exam resulting in an "F" for the course.
Spring 2017	Student copied answers from another student's exam during the final exam in Mechanical Engineering.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the final exam.
Summer 2017	Student copied answers from another student's exam in Chemistry.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Summer 2017	During the Exam 2 practicum for Computer Science student accessed "code" from a flash drive, which was not authorized by the professor.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Summer 2017	Student used cell phone during an exam in Computer Science to access another student's account and copy a solution.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.