

SUBMITTING EXAM TAKEN WITH UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (12)

Submitting an examination about which one has unauthorized information without reporting such fact to the appropriate faculty member.

SEMESTER	OFFENSE	FACULTY OR HONOR COUNCIL DECISION	SANCTION
Fall 2020	None.
Summer 2020	None.
Spring 2020	None
Fall 2019	None.
Summer 2019	None.
Spring 2019	None
Fall 2018	None.
Summer 2018	None.
Spring 2018	Student took an exam for credit in Biology on the back of which the answer key had inadvertently been copied. Instead of reporting this mistake to the professor, student used the answers from the answer key and tore off the page containing the answers in order to hide his actions.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the exam.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.	Faculty	Received a "0" for all quiz 16 and may not drop the quiz score.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.

SUBMITTING EXAM TAKEN WITH UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (12)

Submitting an examination about which one has unauthorized information without reporting such fact to the appropriate faculty member.

	Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.

SUBMITTING EXAM TAKEN WITH UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (12)

Submitting an examination about which one has unauthorized information without reporting such fact to the appropriate faculty member.

	professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.

SUBMITTING EXAM TAKEN WITH UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (12)

Submitting an examination about which one has unauthorized information without reporting such fact to the appropriate faculty member.

	quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.	Honor Council	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.

SUBMITTING EXAM TAKEN WITH UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (12)

Submitting an examination about which one has unauthorized information without reporting such fact to the appropriate faculty member.

Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.	Honor Council	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.	Honor Council	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.	Honor Council	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.	Honor Council	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in	Honor Council	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.

SUBMITTING EXAM TAKEN WITH UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (12)

Submitting an examination about which one has unauthorized information without reporting such fact to the appropriate faculty member.

	Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.	Honor Council	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.
Fall 2017	Student possessed and then used answers to quizzes given two years earlier by the same professor in Environmental Science. Student gained an unfair academic advantage by failing to disclose to the professor or to any other member of the Baylor administration the existence of these compromised quizzes, presenting the work as if it was the product of student's preparation.	Honor Council	Received a grade of "0" on the quiz, with no possibility of dropping this quiz grade.
Summer 2017	None.
Spring 2017	Student took an exam for credit in Nursing about which student had obtained unauthorized information, and student did not report this to the	Honor Council (2nd Offense – Automatic Referral)	Pending – Student Not Enrolled

SUBMITTING EXAM TAKEN WITH UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (12)

Submitting an examination about which one has unauthorized information without reporting such fact to the appropriate faculty member.

	professor prior to taking the exam.
Spring 2017	Student took an exam for credit in Nursing about which student had obtained unauthorized information, and student did not report this to the professor prior to taking the exam.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the exam.
Spring 2017	Student took an exam for credit in Nursing about which student had obtained unauthorized information, and student did not report this to the professor prior to taking the exam.	Honor Council	Pending – Student Not Enrolled
Spring 2017	Student took an exam for credit in Nursing about which student had obtained unauthorized information, and student did not report this to the professor prior to taking the exam.	Honor Council	Grade for the exam was reduced. Received a "C" for the course.
Spring 2017	Student took an exam for credit in Nursing about which student had obtained unauthorized information, and student did not report this to the professor prior to taking the exam.	Honor Council	Received a "0" for the exam.
Fall 2016	None.
Summer 2016	None.
Spring 2016	None.
Fall 2015	None.
Summer 2015	None.
Spring 2015	None.
Fall 2014	None.
Summer 2014	None.
Spring 2014	None.
Fall 2013	None.
Summer 2013	None.
Spring 2013	None.
Fall 2012	None.
Summer 2012	None.
Spring 2012	None.
Fall 2011	None.

SUBMITTING EXAM TAKEN WITH UNAUTHORIZED INFORMATION

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (12)

Submitting an examination about which one has unauthorized information without reporting such fact to the appropriate faculty member.

Summer 2011	None.
Spring 2011	None.
Fall 2010	Student used cell phone during the final exam in English to obtain unauthorized information from the web site, GRADESAVER.com.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Summer 2010	None.
Spring 2010	None
Fall 2009	None.
Summer 2009	None.
Spring 2009	Student received information regarding specific items on an exam student was to take later in the day in Nursing from a student who had already taken the exam, giving student an unfair academic advantage in the class.	Faculty	Ten point deduction on exam and write paper on ethics and integrity.
Spring 2009	Student had cell phone in lap while taking the midterm exam in Environmental Studies. During the exam student was also observed looking at the phone repeatedly, scrolling through it, and then writing or changing answers on the test.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the midterm exam.
Fall 2008	None.
Summer 2008	None.
Spring 2008	None.
Fall 2007	None.
Summer 2007	None.
Spring 2007	Student used, during an examination period in Educational Psychology, material not authorized by the instructor giving the examination.	Faculty	Required to write a paper on Educational Measurement in lieu of counting test. Maximum grade on the paper will be the grade obtained on the test in question.