Scope and Content

The timeline of the Byron Tunnell papers begins in the early 1950's and concludes in 1999 shortly before his death. Materials in the collection depict his years of public service, primarily as a member and Speaker in the Texas House of Representatives and later as Texas Railroad Commissioner. Additional materials related to his time as Vice President of Tenneco, Inc., are also housed in this collection, as well as items from his appointments to the Employee Retirement System and State Conservatorship Board.

Tunnell's papers are arranged in eleven series and include awards, certificates, biographical materials, campaign materials, correspondence, legislation, photographs, and press files.

Series 1. Appointments covers the positions to which Tunnell was assigned duties later in life. As a member of the Employee Retirement System and State Conservatorship Board, he created reports, commissions, funding manuals, newsletters, clippings, and other materials. Series 2. Campaign materials, which are arranged chronologically, include Tunnell's races for the Texas House of Representatives (1956-1964) and for the Railroad Commission (1966-1972).

Series 3. Correspondence includes topical and personal letters, including some from Tunnell's friend and former law partner, Lieutenant Governor Bob Bullock. Series 4. Court Cases highlights Tunnell's appearance in the U.S. Supreme Court for the 1958 case Hawkins v. United States as well as other cases from the 1990's.

Materials in Series 5. Elected Positions are divided according to Tunnell's service on the Railroad Commission and in the Texas House of Representatives. Tunnell was Railroad Commissioner from 1965 to 1973 during an energy crisis, therefore, the materials are primarily focused on topics such as oil and gas. The Texas House of Representatives Subseries is divided according to each legislature and includes administrative files, correspondence, commemorative legislation, publications, and topical materials.

Series 6. Events chronicle Tunnell's attendance at banquets, luncheons, receptions, conferences, conventions, and several Texas inaugurations. The Lobbyist Series reflects Tunnell's experiences at Tenneco, Inc., an oil and gas company based in Houston. The series includes awards and certificates presented to Tunnell, travel itineraries, guestbooks, day planners, political cartoons, and other related items.

Series 9. Photographs ranges in date from 1935 to 1999 and documents personal and business moments throughout Tunnell's life. Campaign headshots, golf outings, Christmas photos, and several hunting and fishing trips are represented. The Press Series includes news clippings and newsletters from Tunnell's career. Series 11. Speeches includes nearly 200 speeches given by Tunnell, including a eulogy for Lieutenant Governor Bob Bullock. These items, dated 1961-1999, kept in Tunnell's original order, highlight the number of organizations and individuals he was involved with during his life.

Administrative/Biographical History

Byron M. Tunnell was born on October 14, 1925, in Tyler, Texas. He was educated in the Tyler public school system and attended Tyler Junior College. Following military service in the Naval Air Corps during World War II, Tunnell attended Baylor University where he earned a law degree in 1952. Tunnell then returned to his hometown of Tyler and served as an assistant district attorney before entering private practice. In 1959, Bob Bullock, future Texas Comptroller and Lieutenant Governor, joined the practice. Tunnell and Bullock developed a close friendship over the next forty years, sharing a passion for public service to their native Texas. When Bullock passed away in 1999, Tunnell delivered one of two eulogies at the funeral.

Tunnell was active with the Junior Chamber of Commerce (Jaycee's) and by the 1950's turned his attention toward politics. He was elected to serve in the Texas House of Representatives from 1956 to 1965 and was appointed Speaker of the House from 1963 to 1965 by his peers. A second term as Speaker was projected, but to the surprise of many, Tunnell joined the Texas Railroad Commission in 1965. His tenure with the Railroad Commission coincided with the energy crisis of the early 1970's which led to his collaboration with the Interstate Oil Compact Commission.

On September 15, 1973, Tunnell resigned from the Railroad Commission to become a vice-president and lobbyist for Tenneco Inc., an oil and gas company based in Houston. In the 1990's, Tunnell returned to public service, first as a member of the Board of Trustees for the Employee Retirement System of Texas, and then as a member of the State Conservatorship Board. He was appointed by George W. Bush as a co-conservator to overhaul the struggling Texas Commission on Alcohol and Drug Abuse.

Tunnell died of cancer at his home in Lake Palestine, Texas, on March 7, 2000.

Administrative/Biographical History

Series 6. Events documents Byron Tunnell's event attendance from 1943 to 1997. The series is divided into three subseries: General, Conferences and Conventions, and Texas Inaugurations. The General Subseries includes printed materials, invitations, and other items related to banquets, receptions, luncheons, and reunions. The Conferences and Conventions Subseries consists primarily of travel itineraries, work materials, and personal memorabilia from events such as the National Legislative Conference and the Democratic National Convention where Tunnell served as a Texas delegate. The Texas Inaugurations Subseries houses invitations, programs, and other documents pertaining to Texas inaugural ceremonies. Each subseries is arranged chronologically and is in good condition.

Series 8: Personal. 1948-2005, undated

Administrative/Biographical History

The Personal Series is divided into three subseries: General, Awards and Certificates, and Travel. The General Subseries includes political cartoons, guestbooks, day planners, official license plates, and items related to the Jaycees and other personal and business interests. The Awards and Certificates Subseries contains plaques and certificates given to Tunnell by organizations he visited while in office, election certificates from the Texas House and Railroad Commission, the Jaycees, and other civic organizations, as well as commemorative flags flown over the state capitol. The Travel Subseries documents Tunnell's travel as part of his jobs as well as personal business. Family vacations are mostly documented with itineraries, research material, and small mementos. Each subseries is organized chronologically and is in good condition.

Administrative/Biographical History

Series 9. Photographs, dated 1925-1999, documents the many facets of Byron Tunnell's life. This series is divided into four subseries: General, Events, Family, and Hunting and Fishing. The General Subseries consists of campaign headshots, group photographs, golf outings, and material from the House floor. The Events Subseries houses items related to Tunnell's time in office, golf tournaments, travel, meetings, and dedications. The Family Subseries includes family portraits, wedding photos, and Christmas photos. The Hunting and Fishing Subseries follows roughly thirty years of trips

Tunnell took with family and friends, including Bob Bullock. Each subseries is in chronological order and in good condition.

Series 10: Press. 1953-1994, undated

Administrative/Biographical History

Series 10. Press contains materials from 1953 to 1994 and is divided into two subseries: News Clippings and Newsletters. Most of the news clippings highlight the work Tunnell did as a member of the Jaycees, when he was serving as a Representative and Railroad Commissioner. Articles related to Bob Bullock are also prominent in the subseries. The newsletters relate primarily to Tunnell's contributions to the Employee Retirement System Board. Both subseries are arranged chronologically and are in good condition.

Series 11: Speeches. 1961-1999, undated

Administrative/Biographical History

Series 11. Speeches, dated 1961-1999, was organized and indexed by Byron Tunnell. Contents include legislative addresses, speeches given to the Jaycees and other civic organizations, and several regarding the oil and gas industry.

Others include workshop speeches, retirement affairs, and eulogies. The final speech is the eulogy Tunnell prepared for his long-time friend, Bob Bullock. The series is in chronological order and is in good condition.
