

CURRICULUM VITAE

Regina B. Wenger

Waco, TX

Phone: By Request

E-mail: Regina_Wenger1@baylor.edu

Education:

Ph.D.—History, expected 2023

Baylor University, Waco, TX

Advisor: Barry Hankins

M.Div., 2015

Magna Cum Laude

Duke Divinity School, Durham, NC

Christian Education Concentration

M.Th. Courses, January–June 2010

International Baptist Theological Seminary, Prague, Czech Republic

(IBTS is now located in Amsterdam, the Netherlands)

B.A.—History and Social Science, Secondary Education, 2009

Summa Cum Laude

Eastern Mennonite University, Harrisonburg, VA

A.A., 2007

Hesston College, Hesston, KS

Research/Academic Experience:

Graduate Assistant, for Dr. Stephen Sloan, Baylor University, Waco, TX (2019-2020): I continue my work on the Primary Source Reader for HIST1300 (U.S. and Global Perspectives) courses, helping to transition it from an online (Canvas) version to a print book, as well as providing ongoing research assistance to Dr. Sloan.

Graduate Assistant, for the History Department of Baylor University, Waco, TX (Summer 2019): I worked with Drs. Stephen Sloan and Julie deGraffenried, editors, on the Primary Source Reader for the HIST 1300 courses. I wrote discussion questions for sources, collaborated with Baylor University Press on copyright permissions, and organized content files.

Publications:

Co-Author, with Elesha J. Coffman. “Billy Graham, Fundamentalism, and Neo-Evangelicalism.” The Oxford Handbook of Christian Fundamentalism. Under Contract.

Conferences:

- “A Message from ‘Your friend Ruth’”: Gender and Authority in the Life and Ministry Ruth Brunk Stoltzfus.” American Society of Church History (New York, NY), January 2020.
- “Smart Women Fit to Be Men: Gender in the Teacher Health and Education Requirements of Virginia’s Weekday Religious Education Program.” History of Education Society (Columbus, OH), October/November 2019.
- “‘Bringing the Church to Children’: Minor C. Miller and the Ethos of Weekday Religious Education.” Conference on Faith and History (Grand Rapids, MI), October 2018.
- “A Parent’s Privilege: Joseph W. Miller and Compulsory Education in Ohio.” American Society of Church History (Washington, D.C.), January 2018.
- “Taking the Stand: God’s Not Dead 2, Religious Freedom in Schools, and Questions of Authority in American Evangelicalism.” American Society of Church History (Berkeley, CA), April 2017.
- “Teaching from Who You Are: Baptists’ Dissenting Origins and the Educational Philosophy of Brown University.” North Carolina Religious Studies Association Annual Conference (Durham, NC), November 2014.

Lectures and Projects:

- |                                                                                                |                                  |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| Guest Contributor, “The Anxious Bench” Blog                                             | December 2018             |
| “A Tale of Two Mennonite Pastors: Siblings, Gender, and How to Disagree”                       |                                  |
| Quarterly Contributor, “New Voices” Column                                              | September 2017 to Present |
| The Mennonite                                                                           |                                  |
| Guest Contributor, “Then and Now” Blog                                                  | November 2016             |
| The Christian Century                                                                   |                                  |
| “School Choice and Our Catholic Vice Presidential Candidates”                                  |                                  |
| Kennel-Charles Lecture Series                                                           | January 2015              |
| Eastern Mennonite School, Harrisonburg, VA                                                     |                                  |
| “Illumination in the West: A. D. Wenger’s Theology of Revival, Dispensationalism, and Mission” |                                  |

Curriculum Advisor 2010 to 2012
Woodrow Wilson Presidential Library and Museum, Staunton, VA
Developed World War I exhibit curriculum titled “Doughboys”;
Summer History Camp Co-Planner and Volunteer

Teaching Experience:

Adjunct Instructor Fall 2017
Bluffton University
Northwest State Community College, Archbold, OH
• 6-week accelerated course: “Faith and Community”

Substitute Teacher 2010 to 2011
Augusta County (VA) Public Schools
Waynesboro (VA) Public Schools

Commonwealth of Virginia 2009 to 2014
Teaching License
Secondary Education
History and Social Science

Awards/Fellowships:

Guittard Fellowship, 2018-2019
Baylor University, Waco, TX

Graduate School Fellowship, 2018-2023
Baylor University, Waco, TX

Professional Affiliations:

American Society of Church History
Conference on Faith and History
History of Education Society