

HIS 1300: The U.S. in Global Perspective

Summer 2021

List of Course Descriptions

Summer I

The U.S. in Global Perspective: International Relations – Wingerd

Introduction to the history of the United States within a global context from 1776 to the present. Examines the ways a distinctly American society developed within larger patterns of world history. Themes explored may include nationalism; imperialism; revolution; concepts of democracy, freedom, and equality; migration and immigration; industrialization and economic systems; and global conflict, with special attention to U.S. foreign policy, diplomacy, and relationships with other societies.

HIS 1300-F1 (25453)      asynch. online

HIS 1300-F2 (25456)      asynch. online

The U.S. in Global Perspective: U.S. Race Theories – Varghese

Introduction to the history of the United States within a global context from 1776 to the present. Examines the ways a distinctly American society developed within larger patterns of world history. Themes explored may include nationalism; imperialism; revolution; concepts of democracy, freedom, and equality; migration and immigration; industrialization and economic systems; and global conflict, with special attention to the formation of racial ideas and categories in the United States.

HIS 1300-F3 (25455)      asynch. online

---

Summer II

The U.S. in Global Perspective: War, Peace, & Gender in the Global North – Jug

Introduction to the history of the United States within a global context from 1776 to the present. Examines the ways a distinctly American society developed within larger patterns of world history. Themes explored may include nationalism; imperialism; revolution; concepts of democracy, freedom, and equality; migration and immigration; industrialization and economic systems; and global conflict, with special attention to change in international relations and the political and social life of the U.S. and Great Powers of Eurasia.

HIS 1300-S1 (26797)      asynch. online

HIS 1300-S2 (26798)      asynch. online

The U.S. in Global Perspective: Anti-Catholicism in America – Gutacker

Introduction to the history of the United States within a global context from 1776 to the present. Examines the ways a distinctly American society developed within larger patterns of world history. Themes explored may include nationalism; imperialism; revolution; concepts of democracy, freedom, and equality; migration and immigration; industrialization and economic systems; and global conflict, with special attention to the history of anti-Catholicism in the United States and its global context.

HIS 1300-S3 (25460)      asynch. online

HIS 1300-S4 (25461)      asynch. online

HIS 1300-S5 (26799)      asynch. online

HIS 1300-S6 (26796)      asynch. online

The U.S. in Global Perspective: U.S. Race Theories – Varghese

Introduction to the history of the United States within a global context from 1776 to the present. Examines the ways a distinctly American society developed within larger patterns of world history. Themes explored may include nationalism; imperialism; revolution; concepts of democracy, freedom, and equality; migration and immigration; industrialization and economic systems; and global conflict, with special attention to the formation of racial ideas and categories in the United States.

HIS 1300-S7 (25457)      asynch. online