

JACOB T. HUNEYCUTT

400 Ivy Avenue, A-149 A, Waco, TX, 76706
Phone: +1 (479) 684-6858 // Email: jacob_huneycutt1@baylor.edu

Education

---

- Candidate for Master of Arts (M.A.) August 2021-present
Baylor University, Waco, TX
- Department of History
- Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) , Summa Cum Laude August 2017- May 2021
University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, AR
- Major: History; Minor: Global Studies
- Member of Phi Beta Kappa Inducted May 2021

Publications

---

- Ozark Historical Review* Spring 2020
- Wrote a research paper titled "'A New Sensation': John Locke and the Sovereignty of God in Jonathan Edwards' Conception of the New Birth," which was published in the Spring 2020 edition of the Ozark Historical Review, a journal edited by history faculty at the University of Arkansas.

Research Experience

---

- Supervised Research at the University of Cambridge July 2019-August 2019
- Wrote a research paper titled, "'A Spirituall Kindgome': The Importance of the Particular Baptists' Transatlantic Network of Voluntary Interdependence and Cooperation to the Success of Baptists in the American South during the Late-Eighteenth Century," under the supervision of Dr Nicolas Bell-Romero.
- University of Arkansas Honors College Thesis Defended April 2021
- Writing a thesis titled "An Awakening Against the Great Awakening: The Primitive Baptist Protest in Antebellum North Carolina" under the supervision of Dr. Jim Gigantino, the Department of History faculty chair.

Honors and Awards

---

- Violet B. Gingles Award* from the Arkansas Historical Association April 2020
- Award from the Arkansas Historical Association for "best manuscript essay on a local Arkansas topic," for the paper, "A Lot of High-combed Roosters: Agrarian Populism and the 1901 Split in the Arkansas Baptist State Convention."
- Fulbright U.S. Student Program 2021
- Alternate
- J. William Fulbright Award from the University of Arkansas Department of History May 2021
- "For Graduating History Majors with the Highest Grade Point Average"
- Jesse Taylor, Jr. Award from the University of Arkansas Department of History May 2021
- "For Outstanding History Students"
- Phi Alpha Theta* Undergraduate Paper Award May 2021

- “For an Outstanding Undergraduate Paper”

Society of Mayflower Descendants Award

- “For Doctoral Research in American History” May 2021

University of Arkansas Honors College Fellowship

August 2017-May 2021

- Four-year, merit-based scholarship. Annually renewed based on excellent grades. Awarded to fewer than 1% of freshmen at the University of Arkansas.

Arkansas Governor’s Distinguished Scholarship

August 2017-May 2021

- Merit based scholarship. Renewed annually based on excellent grades. Fewer than 3% of Arkansas university students receive this award.

University of Arkansas Honors College Study Abroad Grants (2)

- Competitive awards that provided support for study abroad on the Camino program and at the Pembroke-King’s Programme.

University of Arkansas Honors College Research Grant

January 2020-December 2020

- Competitive grant award awarded in order to conduct my Honors College Thesis research on the Primitive Baptists in Antebellum North Carolina.

Study Abroad Experience

---

Honors College H2P Passport – Camino

May 2018

- Two-week faculty-lead study abroad in France and Spain.
- Completed 3 credit hours of honors coursework.
- Learned about medieval history, architecture, and how to travel abroad.

Pembroke-King’s Summer Programme at the University of Cambridge

July-August 2019

- Six-week program at the University of Cambridge; lived in Pembroke College.
- Completed nine credit hours of coursework (European history from 1792-present, Cambridge and its Writers, and supervised research)
- Received an A-equivalent for all nine credit hours.

Leadership.

---

University of Arkansas Fulbright College Honors Program Peer Mentor
December 2019

August 2019-

- Met with a group of nine freshmen Fulbright College honors students once a week, get to know them, take roll, and make sure they do assignments, and discuss tips for educational and personal success in college.

Head Intern at University Baptist Church College Ministry

June 2020-May 2021

- Providing leadership for and communicating responsibilities to a team of 8 college-aged interns, who help run the college ministry, its services, and its outreach weekly.
- Corresponding with the University of Arkansas to make sure the college ministry has permits and reservations for events, registered student organization status, and other paperwork.

Language Skills

---

- German – Advanced II (Written), Intermediate (Spoken).