

Katie Heatherly

Baylor University, Department of History
(828) 989-5159 katie_heatherly1@baylor.edu

Education

M.A., History, Baylor University, expected 2023

Research interest: 20th century fundamentalist and evangelical women and gender, specifically evangelical women's sexuality.

Advisor: Dr. Andrea Turpin

B.A., History Honors, Summa Cum Laude, Union University, May 2020

Minor: Political Science

Cumulative GPA: 4.0

Research

Undergraduate Discipline Specific Honors Thesis, Department of History

Union University, Jackson, TN

Advisor: Dr. David Thomas

Thesis: Biblical Feminism: An Oxymoron? A History of Evangelical Feminists' Understanding of Biblical Justice and Biblical Authority

Honors, Awards, & Fellowships

Graduate School Fellowship, Baylor University, 2021 – 2023

Union University Honors Community, 2016 – 2020

Discipline Specific Honors

General Honors

President's List, Union University, 2016 – 2020

Phi Alpha Theta, 2018 – present

Alpha Chi, 2018 – present

Pi Sigma Alpha, 2019 – present

History Major Award, Union University, 2020

Second Place, Dr. James Alex Baggett History Research Paper Award, Union University, 2020

First Place, Dr. James Alex Baggett History Research Paper Award, Union University, 2019

First Place, International Relations Paper Award, Union University, 2019

Presentations/Panels

Phi Alpha Theta Biennial Convention, San Antonio, TX, January 3, 2020

Biblical Feminism: An Oxymoron? A History of Evangelical Feminists' Understanding of Biblical Justice and Biblical Authority

Relevant Coursework

- HIS 5320: Women's History and Theory, Fall 2021
- HIS 5369: Historian's Craft, Fall 2021
- HIS 5360: Religion in Early America, Fall 2021
- HIS 332: Civil War and Reconstruction, Spring 2020
- HIS 395: African-American History, Spring 2019
- HIS 331: Honors American Revolution/Early National Period, Fall 2018
- HIS 397: History of American Fundamentalism, Spring 2018
- HIS 322: 20th Century Europe, Spring 2018
- HIS 422: U.S. in Cold War Era, 1945-1991, Spring 2017

University Involvement

Graduate Student Association, Baylor University, 2021-2023

Rutledge Honorary History Club, Union University, 2017 – 2020

Student Senate, Union University, 2018 – 2020

Residence Life, Union University, 2018 – 2020

Vice President, UU Democrats, Union University, 2019 – 2020

Host, ειρήνη Political Podcast, Union University, 2020

Work Experience

Graduate Assistant, 2021 – present

Texas Collection, Baylor University, Waco, TX

Responsibilities include processing collections, preservation, managing patrons, and historical research.

Legal Assistant, 2020 – 2021

Casey, Simmons & Bryant PLLC, Jackson, TN

Responsibilities included drafting of documents and letters, interpersonal skills, filing and organization of cases.

Resident Advisor, 2018 – 2020

Union University Residence Life, Jackson, TN

Oversaw a residential building for two years. Responsibilities included clerical work in student commons, organization of events, budgeting, interpersonal skills, conflict management, and enforcing policies.

Study Lab Coach, 2019 – 2020

Union University Center for Academic Success, Jackson, TN

Tutored students in a large group for two years. Responsibilities included organization, synthesis, and clear communication of information.

Archives Intern, 2018

Union University Logos, Jackson, TN

Responsibilities included organization and analysis of information, processing, and use of archives software.

References

Dr. Stephen Carls

Department Chair and University Professor of History

Union University, Jackson, TN

(731) 661-1787

scarls@eplus.net

Dr. Keith Bates

Professor of History

Union University, Jackson, TN

(731) 616-8666

dkbates@uu.edu

Dr. David Thomas

Professor of History

Union University, Jackson, TN

(731) 661-5261

dthomas@uu.edu