Plan Options

The University offers two types of medical coverage listed below. Both medical plans are managed by Blue Cross-Blue Shield of Texas. Affordable cost along with excellent coverage enriches your total compensation package.

High Deductible Health Plan + Health Savings Account (HDHP+HSA)

The HDHP + HSA may be advantageous for anyone who has a history of spending less on their out-of-pocket medical expenses. Informed consumerism is key to effectively managing medical expenses.

- Lower premiums (45% lower than PPO premiums!)
- Higher deductibles
- Higher out-of-pocket costs
- ACA preventative care prescriptions covered at 100%
- Specific generic preventative care prescriptions covered at 100%
- Chronic Pain – AIRROSTI services are $30 copay after deductible
- Opportunity to build wealth with a Health Savings Account (savings can be carried forward indefinitely)
- Baylor contributes to your HSA in January of each year
Preferred Provider Organization (PPO)

The PPO may be advantageous for anyone who has a history of spending more on their out-of-pocket medical expenses.

- Higher premiums
- Lower deductibles (Co-pays vary by service)
- Potential for lower out-of-pocket costs
- ACA preventative care prescriptions covered at 100%
- Chronic Pain – AIRROSTI services are $30 copay
- Opportunity to use a Flexible Spending Account (savings cannot be carried forward - use it or lose it!)
