

Keston Citation Guide

The Keston Archive and Library contains the following types of resources:

- Books
- Periodicals
- Subject Files
- Samizdat
- Digital Images
- Photos
- Manuscripts

Since there is no single way to cite archival materials, the Keston Citation Guide has been developed to serve as guidelines. However, all citations should conclude with the attribution: Keston Center for Religion, Politics, and Society, Baylor University. The following are recommendations and examples.

Books and Periodicals

Books and periodical articles should be cited in accordance with the researcher's preferred or required style.

See: Chicago Manual of Style Online

<http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/home.html>

Subject Files

The Keston subject files contain newspaper and journal clippings, newsletters, brochures, and manuscripts. These items should be described using author, title, publisher, date, and file name.

Published Materials

James A. Stewart, ed., "A Letter from Aida," (Lansdale, Pennsylvania: Gospel Projects, Inc., 1970), 22. Archive file <SU/Initsiativniki 2 Aida>, Keston Center for Religion, Politics, and Society, Baylor University.

Bohdan R. Bociurkiw, "Religion and Soviet Society" (July, 1966), 64. Archive file <USSR/Religion/General>, Keston Center for Religion, Politics, and Society, Baylor University.

Unpublished Manuscripts

Anis'ia E. Lumpova, Aleksandra S. Lagunova, Ekaterina I. Ovechkina, "Komu Zhe Eto Vygodno?" Manuscript reply of believers to an article in Kirovskaia Pravda, 7 September 1960 (October, 1960). Archive file <SU/Ort 6/13 S>, Keston Center for Religion, Politics, and Society, Baylor University.

Digital Images and Photos

The Keston Digital Collection includes digital copies of selected books, journals, articles, brochures, manuscripts, posters, photographs and prints.

Digitized Books, Articles and Brochures

Digital copies of published books and articles should be cited as if print books and articles in accordance with the researcher's preferred or required style.

Metropolitan Alexii, "Christianity and the War with Hitlerism," Zhurnal Moskovskoi Patriarkhii, no. 3, (November, 1943). Keston Center for Religion, Politics, and Society, Baylor University.

Unpublished Manuscripts

Lithuanian Memorandum [ID ml-keston-doc_su-rom-lith-memo] 1971. Keston Digital Collection, Keston Center for Religion, Politics, and Society, Baylor University.
<http://digitalcollections.baylor.edu/cdm/landingpage/collection/keston>. Accessed 09/01/15

Posters

Soviet Poster ID ml-keston-pos_004, Izdatelstvo No 140953, June 12 1984. Keston Digital Collection, Keston Center for Religion, Politics, and Society, Baylor University.
<http://digitalcollections.baylor.edu/cdm/landingpage/collection/keston>. Accessed 12/08/14

Photographs and Prints

Photograph ID SU-Geo-Ort-000003, "Zviad Gamzakhurdia." Date unknown. Keston Digital Collection, Keston Center for Religion, Politics, and Society, Baylor University.
<http://digitalcollections.baylor.edu/cdm/landingpage/collection/keston>. Accessed 08/11/16

Photos

"Aida Skripnikova," photograph. Date unknown. Keston Photo File <SU/Ini (4)>, Keston Photograph Collection, Keston Center for Religion, Politics, and Society, Baylor University.

Manuscripts

Letter (unpublished)

Liubov I. Gorelkina. Statement to the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet, the Minister of Internal Affairs V. Fedorchuk, the General Procurator A. Rekunkov, the Chair of the Committee of Soviet Women V. Tereshkova, the Head of the Local Militia Office No 81 S. Agafonov, and Consulate Departments of the Embassies of Canada, Australia and the Netherlands (represent Israel). April 6, 1985. Archive file <SU/Pen 33/3 S>, Keston Center for Religion, Politics, and Society, Baylor University.