A Message
from Dean Toben

GRATITUDE. THIS IS A FEELING I EXPERIENCE EACH TIME I THINK OF THE FRIENDS AND FAMILY OF BAYLOR LAW SCHOOL WHO HAVE AGAIN SUPPORTED US THROUGHOUT ANOTHER BANNER YEAR. I continue to be amazed at the provision with which we are blessed.

Baylor Lawyers throughout our nation are providing sound counsel to those in need of help, representing their clients in courtrooms, sitting on judicial benches, and serving their communities. They are truly making a difference in the lives of others on a daily basis. Serving others is indeed at the core of our profession and I am, as you surely are, grateful for the impact that Baylor Lawyers have on our state and our nation.

In this issue of Docket Call, we recognize and celebrate another way in which Baylor Lawyers have given back. We highlight our generous supporters and hear from some of the scholarship recipients whose lives have been touched. Their expressions of gratitude, as well as their aspirations, are remarkable. One thing is for certain: the next generation of Baylor Lawyers will continue to advance the Baylor Law brand.

Though we are blessed to have an enviable endowment, there is still much work to be done in order to make a Baylor Law School scholarship, full or partial, available to nearly all of our incoming students. This remains our goal and I know that with your help, it is an achievable one.
In this issue, we’ll also introduce you to Matthew Matheny—the 2015 Young Baylor Lawyer of the Year—who was surprised with the honor at a Law alumni reception held in conjunction with the State Bar of Texas Annual Meeting. Matt has an impressive résumé and is always looking to serve his clients with excellence and integrity. You’ll find Matt’s heart for serving others in his community is equally impressive.

Also included is an introduction to some outstanding representatives of Baylor Law School in our faculty and student profiles. Photos from alumni networking receptions, the John and Marie Chiles Federalist Papers Lecture Series, and our most recent commencement ceremony are all featured in this issue. Each of these special events provided great reason to celebrate and be grateful for the commitment of, and camaraderie among, Baylor Lawyers.

As we celebrate the season, I thank you again—our alumni family, our friends, and our faculty and staff colleagues—who support us throughout the year. Providing students the opportunity of a singular education is certainly a treasured blessing.

_I wish to you blessings and our gratitude during this most special time of the year._

Judge Sam B. Hall Scholarship

I am so honored to be the recipient of the Judge Sam B. Hall Endowed Scholarship. I feel blessed to be at Baylor Law School, pursuing my dream of becoming a child advocacy lawyer. My gratitude for your kindness is boundless because if it were not for this scholarship, I would not be at this incredible school.
I am not a traditional law student. I am a married father of two (soon to be three) wonderful children. The decision my wife and I made to pack up our kids, forfeit all income, and move to Waco was incredibly difficult. We could not have made it without your generous help. At Baylor Law School, I have found great success. You have helped make that possible. Thank you!
I am deeply thankful for your generous contribution to my education. Your support has given me the opportunity to pursue my goal of becoming an attorney. I hope to one day pay it forward, and help others, just as you have helped me.

Matthew Matheny (JD ’03)

2015 YOUNG BAYLOR LAWYER OF THE YEAR

Dean Brad Toben surprised Matthew Matheny with the Young Baylor Lawyer of the Year award at the Baylor Law alumni reception held in conjunction with the State Bar of Texas Annual Meeting. Matheny’s wife, Julia (JD ’04), and his parents were in attendance at the reception to share in his surprise.

“I was surprised to see my parents walk into the banquet room when Dean Toben called my name because I sincerely did not know the award was being presented or that I was even considered,” said Matheny. “I was delighted that I could share this award with them. Without my parents’ guidance, my wife’s support and the opportunities given to me at the Provost Umphrey Law Firm by Walter Umphrey and the partners, I certainly would not be in this position.”

Matheny joined the Provost Umphrey Law Firm, L.L.P., in Beaumont, Texas immediately after graduating from Baylor Law, and he has represented clients in an array of areas since. He is board certified in Personal Injury Trial Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization and has worked with clients from across the country. Matheny currently serves as lead counsel in the NFL Concussion Litigation on behalf of Provost Umphrey.

Among Matheny’s honors are: recognition as a Texas Rising Star (2010-2015), the AV Preeminent Peer Review Rating by Martin-Hubbell, the highest rating in both legal ability and ethical standards; The National Trial Lawyers: Top 100 Trial Lawyers; Houston’s Top Lawyers, H-Texas Magazine; Top 40 Under 40, Beaumont Enterprise; The National Trial Lawyers: Top 40 Under 40; and The Best Lawyers in America, U.S. News.

Outside of the office, Matheny is a dedicated husband to fellow Baylor Lawyer, Julia, and father of two. He volunteers with Operation Orphan, serves as a volunteer judge for the Evelyn Lord Teen Court program, and gives his time to an array of other organizations. He is also a Lifetime Member of the Baylor Law Alumni Association.

Matheny follows in the footsteps of his father, Mike, who has been an attorney in Beaumont for 50 years and served as a judge for four years. Matheny’s mother, Sarah, taught at Lamar University for 40 years, and aided in his decision to attend a liberal arts school for his undergraduate education. He credits his parents with always supporting him.

“Matt exemplifies the attributes we love to see in Baylor Lawyers. He is a top-notch trial lawyer, has a passion for serving his clients, and also reaches out to serve in his community,” said Dean Brad Toben. “We are honored to name him as the 2015 Young Baylor Lawyer of the Year.”

“The foundation of my law practice was the training I received at Baylor Law School,” said Matheny. “I hold the Law School and my fellow Baylor Lawyers in the highest esteem; to be honored by them with this award is a distinction that is incredibly humbling.”
AHTOOSA AMINI

SCHOLARSHIPS ARE AN IMPORTANT FACTOR FOR STUDENTS TRYING TO MAKE THEIR WAY THROUGH LAW SCHOOL. THIS IS CERTAINLY TRUE FOR STUDENT AHTOOSA AMINI. SHE IS THE RECIPIENT OF THE FRANKLIN JONES, JR., MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP OFFERED BY THE HONORABLE T. JOHN WARD AMERICAN INN OF COURT.

The Franklin Jones, Jr., Memorial Scholarship is available to law students and prospective law students who are residents of the Eastern District of Texas. “I am honored to be receiving such a prestigious award that is given to a student who is ethical, civil, and professional,” said Amini.

Amini is in her third year at Baylor Law with an interest in IP law and litigation. “I thought Baylor would be a great fit with its emphasis on trial advocacy, which hones skills I was hoping to improve,” said Amini. “After being at Baylor Law School for two years, I have to say the faculty are so caring and always helpful. I have never been turned down by a professor to talk about anything, even if I hadn’t met the professor or didn’t have a class with them before.”

Amini is involved in the Baylor Law Review, the Harvey M. Richey Moot Court Society, the External Moot Court Competition, and Mission Waco. “Joining an external moot court team has definitely transformed my speaking and writing skills. Working with the Baylor Law Review has also immensely improved my legal writing skills, and Mission Waco has made me humble and happy to help the community,” said Amini.

This past summer she clerked at Haynes and Boone, LLC, and Fish and Richardson, PC, in their Dallas, Texas, office. “I hope to continue being an excellent example of what this scholarship represents and to inspire others to do the same,” said Amini.

Public service is an important aspect of Baylor Law School. During new student orientation, each entering class is given the opportunity to help the local community through an organized public service project. The Fall 2015 entering class packed lunches for a local senior citizen assistance organization, Meals and Wheels; organized items for Caritas, a local non-profit charity dedicated to emergency assistance; and spent some time keeping Cameron Park beautiful.

AS DIRECTOR OF THE LEGAL WRITING CENTER, ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF THE LAW LIBRARY, AND PROFESSOR OF LAW, MATT CORDON CONTRIBUTES TO BAYLOR LAW SCHOOL IN MANY WAYS.

After becoming a faculty member in 2000, Cordon developed and began teaching the Advanced Legal Research course. Since 2007, he has taught all introductory legal writing classes within the Legal Analysis, Research, and Communications (LARC) program. Cordon also served as the reference librarian for six years and has been associate director of the law library for the past nine years. His newest role, director of the Legal Writing Center, began when it opened this fall.

“The newly created Legal Writing Center is the result of many months of study and discussion among the entire Law School faculty, which adopted a proposal drafted by current LARC instructors to enlarge the research and writing program to five quarters,” said Dean Brad Toben. “The Law School faculty firmly believes the Legal Writing Center and expanded LARC program, along with other programmatic improvements, will provide students with an even stronger system of training.”

In his new role, Cordon will continue to work one-on-one with students. “I teach legal writing to more than 150 students, and I meet with students individually about various writing projects throughout the year. I enjoy helping students more than anything,” said Cordon.

“In addition to all Professor Cordon does for Baylor Law, he selflessly shared his time to serve as the chairman of the Baylor Faculty Senate for two years,” said Toben. “Matt is a servant leader and outstanding asset to the Baylor Faculty Senate.”

Cordon is the co-author of multiple books. He worked with Professor Brandon Quarles to write Researching Texas Law and Specialized Topics in Texas Legal Research. Cordon is also the co-author of Civil War Blockade Runners: Prize Claims and the Historical Record, Including the Denbigh’s Court Documents along with Professor Jerry Powell.

Additionally, Cordon manages to write between 50 and 100 essays each year for titles published by Gale and Cengage Learning. “Most recently, I have worked on a number of essays for American Law Yearbook and the second edition of the Gale Encyclopedia of Senior Health,” said Cordon.

His hobbies don’t stop at writing books as he participates—and wins—martial arts tournaments as well. “My son started taking taekwondo classes in 2008 and even though I would do anything to support my kids, I became bored watching,” said Cordon. “I started participating in classes, and my son and I both eventually earned black belts.”

Reflecting on the many ways he values his involvement with Baylor Law, Cordon said, “I have been fortunate to have many opportunities to contribute to the Law School and the University, and I always find the work I do to be rewarding. I am blessed that I have been able to spend most of my career here.”
VIK DEIVANAYAGAM (JD ‘96) HAS BEEN PRACTICING LAW WITH THE LAW OFFICES OF ROD GOBLE SINCE EARNING HIS LAW DEGREE AND HOLDS A NUMBER OF POSITIONS IN THE WACO COMMUNITY—INCLUDING THAT OF ADJUNCT PROFESSOR AT BAYLOR LAW SCHOOL.

“There are numerous things I enjoy about teaching at Baylor Law School, like visiting with the faculty and administration, and the feeling of providing some guidance and a little wisdom to the next generation of attorneys. But, selfishly, teaching keeps me sharp and makes me feel renewed. Every quarter I am pleasantly surprised by the quality of students that are in my class,” said Deivanayagam.

Deivanayagam’s areas of specialization are criminal and juvenile law, both of which he takes great pride in practicing. He is able to relate to them and sees most of his clients as genuinely good people who have made mistakes.

“Practicing juvenile law can be both depressing and rewarding. I am constantly reminded of how fortunate I am to have family, friends, and mentors in my life. Most of the youth I deal with have little to none of these role models,” said Deivanayagam. “Every now and then, I get a card, a graduation announcement, or run into someone that I have represented. The ‘thanks’ they give me provides a sense of accomplishment.”

Outside of work, Deivanayagam also serves as a judge for the City of Woodway and teaches for the Texas Municipal Courts Association. “I teach to a broad spectrum of municipal judges around the state. Some judges have been on the bench for two years and others for over 25 years. It is important to present the basics of a topic for the newer judges, but it is equally important to keep the presentation fresh for the more experienced ones. I try to bring the same approach to my teaching style,” he said.

Deivanayagam is vice president and treasurer of the McLennan County Access to Recovery, which supports the McLennan County Drug Court. As a husband and father to three young children, he has a lot of activities to participate in, and a lot of heart to help him do it. “At the end of the day, I think that is what we all strive to do in this chosen profession of service—to make a difference.”

Graduation Day

George Royalty “Rook” Edwards (JD ’49) was born February 17, 1926, and passed away July 8, 2015, in Waco, Texas. He joined the Army Air Corps in World War II and graduated from Baylor Law School in 1949. He began his law practice in Waco by forming the law firm of Edwards, Ressler, Horner & Lebowitz. Rook’s practice was interrupted when he was recalled to active duty with the Air Force during the Korean Conflict where he served as a JAG Officer. He retired as a Captain, U.S.A.F., and served as a commercial pilot for a number of years thereafter. Upon his release from the Air Force, he served as an Assistant District Attorney in Waco. Rook later practiced law as a board certified oil and gas attorney in Houston.

Rook was a member of the Karem Temple and greatly enjoyed his association with the Houston Hanger of The Quiet Birdmen. He will always be remembered for his quick wit, ready stories, and zest for life.

Hon. Melvin Emory Mayfield (LLB ’49), of Little Rock, Arkansas, was born March 4, 1920, and went home to be with the Lord on September 5, 2015. He was a veteran of World War II with overseas service in Okinawa. He later attended Baylor University where he met and married Mary Bennett and earned degrees in business and law.

Melvin began law practice in El Dorado, Texas, in 1950. In the years following, he was a two-term representative in Arkansas’ General Assembly and a deputy prosecuting attorney for Union County. He served 18 years as circuit judge of the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit before being elected to the Arkansas Court of Appeals in 1980. He was chief judge for the first three and a half years and continued to serve on that court until his retirement in 1996.

Arthur William “Bill” Bailey, Jr., (JD ’51) was born April 24, 1929, in Waco, Texas. He attended Waco High School, where he met future wife Roberta Hatch, and graduated from Baylor in 1951 with a BA and a law degree.

Bill served during the Korean Conflict in the U.S. Air Force as a 1st Lieutenant in the Judge Advocates General (JAG) Division. Upon returning to Waco, he opted to go into the insurance business with his father. Two years later he established his own independent insurance agency, Bill Bailey Insurance Agency, now Bailey Insurance and Risk Management, Inc.

He was Chairman Emeritus of Bailey Insurance and Risk Management, Inc., Chairman of Wilkerson-Hatch-Bailey Funeral Home, Inc., and previously served on the board of Texas National Bank of Waco (Compass Bank BBVA). Bill served as a trustee and regent of Baylor University. He also chaired the Presidential Succession Committee, was honored as a Distinguished Alumnus in 1997 and was presented the W.R. White Meritorious Service Award. Bill and Roberta established the annual Bill and Roberta Bailey Family Lecture in Christian Ethics at Truett Seminary. In addition, the couple received the James Huckins, Pat Neff and Presidents Medallions from Baylor University.

John Lionel Jackson (LLB ’58) was born February 18, 1932, and passed away August 20, 2015, at his home. He was a veteran of the Korean War, where he served as an Atomic Weapons Assembly Specialist in Los Alamos, New Mexico.

John earned a degree in electrical engineering from Texas Christian University and a law degree from Baylor Law School. He worked as a patent attorney for IBM and retired after 32 years of service. At the time of his retirement, John was lead counsel and manager of the Intellectual Property Division in Austin, Texas. He was also a land developer and enjoyed gardening and model trains.

John had a humorous nature and made an art out of endearing people, places, and dogs with unique comical nicknames. John was a very generous person and a champion of the underdog. Friends and family always knew that he could be called upon to lend a helping hand at a moment’s notice.

Harry Alonzo DeFord II was born August 29, 1941, and passed away August 21, 2015, after many years of battling cancer. He married Suzanne and his father built together.

Perhaps the most personally
Charles Milton McDonald (JD ’58) was born November 2, 1928, and passed away June 11, 2015, in Whitney, Texas. He graduated from Waco High School in 1946 and Baylor University in 1958, earning a combined degree.

Charles was inducted into the Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association Hall of Fame, becoming only the second lawyer from McLennan County to receive the honor, and the 56th lawyer to enter the hall of fame. He also served as a TCDLA president and board member after helping establish the association in 1971. He represented thousands of clients across the country in the more than 54 years he practiced law.

Not only was Charles a dedicated lawyer, he and his late wife Kathy loved to travel the world in addition to owning and operating a number of businesses. Charles enjoyed life and enjoyed being with those close to him.

Harry Alonzo DeFord II (JD ’65) was born May 13, 1941, and went to be with his Lord on August 21, 2015, after many years of battling cancer. He married Suzanne Black on October 23, 1981, and they moved to Garland, Texas, where he resided until his death.

Harry earned a juris doctor from Baylor in 1969. He helped establish the first legal department in a bank in the State of Texas when he worked for Oak Cliff Bank & Trust. After Bank of America purchased the bank, he specialized in mergers and acquisitions.

Harry was a member of the ABA, served as president of the American Banking Institute, and was also the chairman of the SPRC at St. Phillip’s United Methodist Church. In his spare time, he enjoyed creating video slideshows, watching western movies, and collecting bald eagle figurines. Harry’s greatest joy was spending time at the lake house he and his father built together.

Gary Ray Price (JD ’65) was born November 27, 1936, and passed away August 10, 2015. He earned a bachelor of science from Howard Payne College in 1960 and a juris doctor from Baylor Law School in 1965.

He served one four-year term as County Attorney of Brown County and two four-year terms as District Attorney for the 35th Judicial District of Texas. He was also Board Certified in Civil Trial Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization.

Gary was a member of the Texas Bar Foundation, Life Fellow; Counselors Organization at Baylor School of Law; Texas Bar Association; the American Bar Association; and Brown County Bar Association.

He devoted many hours to the community, including leadership positions with the Brownwood Jaycees, Brownwood Chamber of Commerce, the Heart of Texas Girl Scout Council, Texas Bank Brownwood, the Howard Payne Jacket Century Club, the MacArthur Academy of Freedom, and the Howard Payne Board of Trustees.

Perhaps the most personally gratifying accomplishment of Gary’s professional career was the enactment of the Tuition Equalization Grant (TEG), which he created.

Since its passage, the TEG has helped more than 100,000 students attend the private college or university of their choice.

Gary married Jarene Thomas in 1958 and, out of this union, two sons were born—Kent Montgomery Price and Waren Corbeth Price.

Ted Owen Christopher (JD ’67) was born August 29, 1941, and passed away August 31, 2015, at a hospice house in Burleson, Texas. After graduating from Baylor Law School, he was the City Attorney in Arlington from 1967 to 1974. Ted then entered into private practice, from which he retired in 2007. He was a member of the Texas Bar Association and was a professor at the University of Texas Arlington.
HON. WILLIAM HAWKINS HEATLY (JD ’67) was born February 11, 1944, and passed away July 8, 2015. He earned a degree from Baylor Law School and then served as a District Attorney for 19 years and a District Judge for 10 years in Cottle, Knox, Baylor, and King Counties.

Bill was a loving husband, father, grandfather, and great grandfather who passed along his love of the outdoors to his entire family. He loved fishing, hunting, bird watching, and gardening, was an avid reader, and enjoyed photography. He loved being in the beautiful outdoors of Colorado and Venice, L.A., where he would spend time with his children and grandchildren fishing.

Bill was a member of the State Bar, was a Master Mason at Paducah Lodge #868, and was a Shriner. He was also a member of First Baptist Church in Paducah, Kentucky.

Rex Staley Whitaker (JD ’69) was born October 4, 1942, and passed away September 1, 2015, at his home in Waco, Texas—while surrounded by family—after a courageous battle with pancreatic cancer. He earned a bachelor of science from Baylor in 1965 and juris doctor from Baylor Law School in 1969.

Rex practiced law with Naman, Howell, Smith & Lee, LLP, for over 40 years before retiring as a senior partner to practice with his son at Baird, Crews, Schiller & Whitaker, PC, where he was ‘of counsel’ until his death. In addition to practicing law, he taught Securities Law at Baylor Law School as an adjunct professor.

Rex married Marilyn Smith Whitaker in 1963 and deeply loved his Lord, his family, and his friends. He encouraged his wife and children in their endeavors and took great pride not only in the many activities of his grandchildren but also in their faith. He sought the kingdom of God in everything he did and was rooted deeply in the Word of God.

Bill Geer (JD ’73) was born December 28, 1947, and passed away July 3, 2015. He was an Army veteran who served a tour of duty in Vietnam where he earned a Silver Star and a Purple Heart with two oak clusters among other commendations. Bill graduated from Baylor Law School in 1973 and immediately joined the law firm of Keys, Russell, Seaman and Mansker in Corpus Christi, Texas.

Bill later became General Counsel for Baker Marine Corp. and ultimately co-founded Frontier General Insurance Corporation. He was most recently a small business owner and worked alongside dear friends.

Bill’s greatest legacy is the numerous deep and meaningful relationships that he cultivated. He was happiest spending time with his family, fishing on the Texas Gulf Coast, and building street rods. He was a member of the Arlington Area Street Rod Association.

Dana M. Smith (JD ’74) was born July 17, 1948, and passed away at his home in Brownwood, Texas, on July 17, 2015, after a brave battle with ALS, also known as Lou Gehrig’s disease. He was a graduate of Southwestern Adventist University and earned his juris doctor from Baylor Law School. Dana practiced law for over 40 years and left a legacy of kindness and compassion that gives his family great pride. It has been said Dana did not only gain clients, he gained friends. He enjoyed playing golf, traveling the country for sporting events, watching baseball, and spending time with his family and friends.

Nita Carol Kissel Fanning (JD ’78) was born November 11, 1953, and went to be with the Lord from her home in Woodway, Texas, on August 21, 2015. Nita completed her undergraduate degree at Baylor University in 1976 and graduated from Baylor Law School in 1978. She practiced general and family law in Waco, Texas, through her private practice and work with Legal Aid.

Nita was a lifelong member of the alumnae chapter of Delta Delta Delta and was active in the Junior League of Waco. She was a member of Dayspring Baptist Church and enjoyed teaching Sunday School at Fellowship Bible Church in McGregor, Texas.
She is survived by her children, Aaron Fanning, his wife, Nicole, and their two children; Bret Fanning; and Arden Fanning. Nita’s unconditional love for her children was a hallmark of her life and she often mentioned that her grandchildren made her feel complete.

Richard Lee “Dick” Clark (JD ’64), was born May 9, 1937, in Waco, Texas. Dick was a star football player for the Waco High Tigers and Baylor University, where he played in the 1957 Sugar Bowl. Dick went on to be drafted by the Chicago Bears and played professionally for the Toronto Argonauts and the Calgary Stampeders in the CFL.

He graduated from Baylor University with both his undergraduate degree and a law degree following his football career. Dick then began practicing law with the McLennan County District Attorney’s Office and later went into private practice with his father at the law firm of Clark and Clark. He also served in the Naval Reserves JAG Corps as a Lt. Commander, was a Mason, and was also a member of the Karem Shrine Temple.

Dick married Sandra Clark on May 1, 1964. He was a devoted and loving husband, father, and grandfather and who deeply cherished the love and company of his family and friends, and took great joy in the nickname “Popeye” given to him by his grandchildren.

Raymond T. Palladino (JD ’69), was born September 6, 1932, and passed away September 11, 2015, in Waco, Texas. Ray joined the United States Air Force in 1953 where he proudly served his country as a Major. He was awarded an Honorable Discharge in 1972 as a testimonial for his honest and faithful service.

Ray earned a law degree from Baylor Law School and practiced in Waco for 50 years. He was licensed to practice before the U.S. Tax Court, the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, and the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Texas. He was also a member of the State Bar of Texas and the Waco-McLennan County Bar Association.

In April of 1956, Ray married his wife of 59 years, Susi, and together they had three children. Ray was also a champion skeet shooter and shared his expertise teaching a skeet shooting course as a physical education credit at Baylor.

Hon. Thomas R. Culver III (JD ’71), graduated from Baylor University with a BBA in 1971 and earned a juris doctor from Baylor Law in 1973. Before beginning 38 years of public service in the justice system, Thomas was a practicing civil attorney in Rosenberg, Texas.

Thomas served as Fort Bend County Assistant District Attorney Felony Prosecutor and then served two terms as the County Court at Law Judge for Fort Bend County. He was first elected as the 240th District Judge in 1990, where he served until his retirement in June 2015.

Thomas served as Chairman of the Unauthorized Practice of Law Committee of the State Bar of Texas, Director of the Texas County Court at Law Judge’s Association, Chairman of the Fort Bend County Juvenile Board, and as the first Chairman for the Fort Bend County Bail Bond Board.

As a District Judge, he served on numerous boards and was elected the Local Administrative District Judge by his peers numerous times. He was a sustaining member of the College of the State Bar of Texas and was licensed by the State Bar of Texas, the United States Supreme Court, the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, and the Fifth Circuit Federal Court of Appeals.

Thomas married his Baylor sweetheart, the former Jan Carden, of Richmond, Texas, in 1973. He lived life to the fullest and his legacy will live on through his family and friends.

Demonstrating a strong commitment to the success of Baylor Law School and the students aspiring to earn Baylor Law degrees, Louis Satterfield, Jr. (BBA ’59, JD ’60)—who served for many years on Baylor’s Board of Regents—and his late wife, Peggy Clare, established the Peggy Clare and Louis O. Satterfield, Jr., Scholarship Fund. Their faithful generosity and enduring dedication to the next generation of Baylor Law graduates has given many students the opportunity not only to attend Baylor Law, but to fulfill a lifelong dream: the dream of becoming a Baylor Lawyer.
