Moon Man Walk

Play by James Ijames

Directed by Sam Henderson

April 27 - 30 at 7:30pm
April 30 & May 1 at 2pm
Mabee Theatre

Tickets for Moon Man Walk go on sale April 12

Moon Man Walk is presented by special arrangement with Dramatists Play Service, Inc., New York.

Resting on the ensemble of four Black actors, Moon Man Walk tells the story of a young man named Spencer, who travels back to Philadelphia for his mother’s funeral. As he seeks to put back the pieces of his life by recalling the stories his mother told him, he finds love, a glimmer of hope in his darkest moment, and the truth about his ever-distant father. He’s left to ponder how the past and the present will shape his future. Ultimately, the story reminds us of the gravity of our relationships, while transporting us between the past and the present and to the moon and back.
