Term(s) and year to which you are seeking admission: _____

Date: _____

Please complete the following steps:

1. Have one of your undergraduate advocacy coaches write (a) letter(s) of recommendation and attach the letter(s) to this application form, sealed and signed across the seal(s). Do not submit more than three recommendation letters. The recommendation letter(s) must accompany this application form.
2. In an essay of 250 words or less, describe the reason why you feel qualified to receive this scholarship.
3. Submit a short videotape or digital video recording of one of your advocacy presentations. If you do not have a recording from a competition, you are welcome to submit a “staged” recording.
4. Submit a résumé outlining your advocacy experience.
5. Submit this application and the materials requested in the above steps to the address listed below. Do not submit the application materials with your Baylor Law School admission application. Admissions materials and scholarship materials must be submitted separately.
