

MIKE ROGERS
Professor of Law
Baylor Law School
One Bear Place #97288
Waco, TX 76798-7288
254-710-6593
Mike_Rogers@baylor.edu

Education

- B.B.A. 1972, Texas Tech University, Beta Gamma Sigma, Phi Kappa Phi, Basketball student-athlete (member of Double T Varsity Club).
- J.D. 1974, University of Oklahoma, Order of the Coif, editor--Oklahoma Law Review.

Law Practice

- Founding partner of Gilmore and Bell, a securities transactions firm with offices in Wichita, Kansas; Kansas City, Missouri; Omaha, Nebraska and St. Louis, Missouri.

Recent NCAA Related Professional Activities

- Baylor FAR since June 2001 and Chair of Pro Sports Counseling Panel for over 20 years.
- Past Chair of the Big 12 FAR Council.
- Big 12 Conference representative on the NCAA Division I Academic/Eligibility/Compliance Cabinet and Chair of its Agents and Amateurism Subcommittee. (2005-2008)
- Appointed in 2008 as Chair of the Amateurism Cabinet by the NCAA Board of Directors. Renewed as Chair in 2010. Member since stepping down as chair in 2011.
- Co-author of “Investigations-Act before Wolves Howl” NCAA News-October 23, 2006.
- Co-author of “Navigating the Bylaw Maze in NCAA Major Infractions Cases” 37 Seton Hall Law Review 749 (2007).
- Panelist at:
  - NCAA 2010 Major Infractions Symposium in Indianapolis in May of 2010. (Part of Regional Rules Seminar).
  - NAAC, NACDA, FARA, IA FAR and NCAA Conventions.
  - Multiple Big 12 Rules Workshops
- 2012-13 Recognition for Commitment to the Ideals of the Scholar – Athlete from the National Football Foundation