

Cole Nowell
1999—

Cole Nowell is a college junior from McKinney, Texas. He is an English major with a minor in Business Administration, and he is additionally on a pre-law track, although he is still juggling among a few different fields of law to focus on. Cole has a history of writing sports articles, specifically on the non-profit, “equal opportunity” website The Sports Column, but he also writes fiction stories in his free time. Once he graduates from Baylor University, as he is pre-law, he has aspirations of going to law school, though he has considered working as a columnist or even as an author as alternative career choices.
