What is Global Missions @ Baylor? Global Missions collaborates with faculty & staff from a variety of disciplines & backgrounds along with our global partners in order to implement spiritually rich & challenging experiences for you. It is our hope that the students who participate in our trips not only enjoy the experience but also discover a sense of vocation & calling as you see first-hand how you can use your discipline to serve the world.

Who can go?

Global Missions trips are open to all Baylor students! Some trips are created specifically for certain majors (i.e. Medical, Engineering) but many of our teams are open to ALL Majors! If you see a trip that you are interested in but it says another major, reach out to the leader and ask if they could use your skill sets & passions (especially students studying Public Relations, Visual Media, English/Professional Writing/Journalism!) If you want some extra guidance finding your missions fit, reach out to Holly Tate, Assistant Director for Student Engagement ASAP!

How to Apply for a Baylor Missions trip?!

- STARTING OCTOBER 1st Go to www.baylor.edu/missions/global OR the link listed for the specific team (we've got search features set up for you to find the best fit for you)
- Find the APPLY NOW button on the team page
- Fill out application & check off materials prior to deadline below.
 - Can't finish it in one sitting? Once you've got an app started, go straight to <https://bearsabroad.baylor.edu> to finish it up!
- Some teams will also interview students so get apps in early!
- Contact team leader for more info on cost & fundraising

Why Go on a Baylor Missions trip?

"My trip to Ghana was truly a unique, remarkable, & holistic experience. The highlight of my trip was the time we spent at Kyerekrom RC Primary where I got to teach 6th graders about environmental sustainability! Seeing those young, vibrant minds get excited about something that I am truly passionate about gave me hope for the next generation.

Although I was the teacher, whether they knew it or not, I learned a great deal from them as well. I feel extremely blessed for having had this opportunity to combine my love for science, education & service for a purpose greater than myself." - Jasmine Stovall, Graduate Student, Environmental Science, GHANA

"We've all heard the saying that home is where the heart is, and every time I go to Guatemala, I leave a piece of mine there. To be able to return and serve in a medical capacity, to pursue my calling to become a doctor, was a blessing like no other."

Garrett Burton, Junior, Medical Humanities, GUATEMALA Pre-Med

"My time in Italy was incredible. Learning to experience and document other cultures with respect is so valuable for me as a Baylor student and but also as a follower of Christ. Hearing migrants' stories first hand transformed my understanding of the refugee crisis and has equipped me to better serve refugees and immigrants where I am." - Corrie Coleman, Senior, Journalism Major Visual Storytelling of Migration

"Before going on this trip, I had this crazy idea of what I wanted to do with veterinary medicine. I never wanted to be a typical private practitioner and wanted to do something that made a difference. Being able to help with and see the incredible need for intervention at Animal AWARE confirmed the craziness that is my calling. I'm so grateful that Baylor Missions took this leap of faith with me and is pushing me to make AWARE the place we get to make a difference." - Kaley VanValkenburg, Junior, Biology & Neuroscience, GUATEMALA Pre-Veterinary Society

"I learned that my comfort zone can be stretched just a little bit farther than I previously thought. This is a fantastic thing to bring into my future classroom as I pursue my calling to become a special educator. If I don't step out of my comfort zone, I cannot encourage my students to do so. I am thankful for opportunities such as this to practice doing so." - Jordan Jones, Junior, All-Levels Special Education Costa Rica Education
