Baylor University JAMP Applicant & Accepted Student Information

May 1, 2018- JAMP Application Opens [www.texasjamp.org]

May 1, 2018 - August 28, 2018 Email Linda B. Haynes (JFD) in the Office of Prehealth Studies [linda_b_haynes@baylor.edu] to schedule an appointment prior to beginning your application.

September 14, 2018- Deadline to submit required application materials to the JAMP JFD:

- Signed JAMP Authorization to Release Educational Records Form
- JAMP Application Letter of Evaluation Faculty Form
- JAMP Application Letter of Evaluation JFD Form
- Student Aid Reports (2017-2018 and 2018-2019)
- High school transcript and any previous college credit transcript(s)
- Draft of your Personal Statement

Sept. 4-14, 2018- Schedule an interview with your JFD if you have not done so previously

October 1, 2018 @ 5:00PM- Deadline to submit application to JAMP website

Benefits of JAMP Participation*

- Support through undergraduate stipends
- Placement into JAMP summer internships
- Hands-on experience through clinical enrichment experiences
- Comprehensive, multi-phase MCAT preparation program
- Personal and professional development through dedicated mentoring
- Guaranteed admission to a Texas medical school if all criteria are met
- Medical school scholarships

* These benefits are not always guaranteed for every application cycle. To review current benefits and program requirements, visit the JAMP website for updated information.

Overview of Program Eligibility

- 3.25 grade point average overall and 3.25 grade point average in Biology/Chemistry/Physics/Math (BCPM) courses is recommended; preference will be given to those achieving higher scores. Grades from all courses completed before final selection will be considered.
• 27 semester hours of undergraduate credit must be completed in the first year of college after graduation from high school at an institution of higher education; no more than 3 semester hours of AP credit can be counted towards the 27-hour requirement

• Be a Texas resident for purposes of tuition under Subchapter B, Chapter 54 of the Texas Education Code. See JAMP website for more information

• Be a citizen of the United States or a permanent US resident alien.

• For more information on eligibility criteria, visit the JAMP website.

---

Baylor JAMP Student Ambassadors 2018-2019

To learn more about JAMP from a student’s perspective, you may contact the following JAMP participants:

SENIORS:
Ben Cooper
Courtlyn G Reynold

JUNIORS:
Maddie Walker
Kierra Batiste
Derrick Williams
Dominique Johnson
Alyssa Liang

Ben_Cooper1@baylor.edu
Courtlyn_Reynolds@baylor.edu
Maddie_Walker@baylor.edu
Kierra_Batiste@baylor.edu
Derrick_Williams1@baylor.edu
Dominique_Johnson1@baylor.edu
Alyssa_Liang@baylor.edu

---

9 Participating JAMP Medical Schools

• Baylor College of Medicine

• Texas Tech University Health Science Center School of Medicine

• Texas Tech Paul L. Foster School of Medicine

• Texas A&M University Health Science Center

• University of North Texas Health Science Center/Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine

• University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center (Dallas)

• University of Texas Medical Branch (Galveston)

• UTHealth McGovern Medical School (Houston)

• University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio
Information for Baylor University Students Accepted to the JAMP

Spring of Sophomore Year

• Sign an agreement with the JAMP Council
• Continue to complete premed required courses
• Maintain a minimum of 3.25 GPA overall and in science at Baylor
• Meet with Baylor’s JFD at least once per month
• Plan a time frame to study and take the MCAT
• Complete JAMP summer internship #1

Fall of Junior Year

• Meet with your JFD at least once per month
• Attend an Application Workshop hosted by the Office of Prehealth Studies
• Plan a time frame to study and take the MCAT
• Maintain a minimum 3.25 GPA overall and in science at Baylor

Spring of Junior Year

• Submit the required documents for a Prehealth Committee Interview or letter packet
• Take the MCAT by May of your junior year
• Satisfy medical school admission requirements
• Begin your application (opens on May 1) on the TMDSAS website
• Apply for admission to a participating medical school before the beginning of senior year
• Maintain a minimum 3.25 GPA overall and in science at Baylor
• Complete JAMP summer internship #2

NOTE: The Office of Prehealth Studies strongly recommends that JAMP participants take Foundations of Medicine-PHP 1105 and Prehealth Professional Development - PHP 1206 prior to the Spring of their junior year.