

Doctor of Occupational Therapy

Required Pre-requisites with recommendations for course selection.

Human Anatomy and Physiology I 4 credit hours

- BIOL 2401: Human Anatomy & Physiology of Motion & Innervation

Human Anatomy and Physiology II 4 credit hours

- BIOL 2402: Human Anatomy & Physiology of Metabolism & Processing

Kinesiology, Biomechanics, or Physics 3 credit hours

- HP 2306: Anatomical Kinesiology

Abnormal Psychology 3 credit hours

- PSY 3321: Abnormal Psychology

Human Development (lifespan) 3 credit hours

- PSY 3341: A Survey of Human Development, or
- PSY 3350: Lifespan Human Development

Social Sciences (200-level) 6 credit hours

- SOC 2310: Introduction to Gender Studies, and
- SOC 3305: Introduction to Gerontology

Social Science Statistics 3 credit hours

- SOC 3402: Social Statistics

Medical Terminology 1 credit hours

- CLA 3381: Medical Terminology