I have received, read, understand, and agree to comply with the Baylor University Officer, (and) Administrative Employee and Other Employees Conflict of Interest Policy and, except as hereinafter disclosed, I know of no personal or adverse interests of my own or of members of my immediate family or organizations, including corporations and business entities in which I have a financial interest or management responsibility, that might involve a potential conflict of interest affecting Baylor University. The list of possible conflicts of interest presented below includes personal gifts, entertainment, and/or benefits of more than $100 in value in the aggregate during the past twelve months covered by this statement from suppliers of goods or services or from students, faculty, or others associated with or seeking association with the University. I am also listing all situations in which I am unable to determine a value for the personal gifts, entertainment, and/or other benefits in addition to the organizations, including corporations and business entities, of which I am an owner or for which I serve as a director, trustee, or officer. Further I hereby represent that I understand that Baylor University is a charitable organization and that in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

Name: Reese Gardell
ID: 890152880

Possible Conflicts of Interest

The list of possible conflicts of interest presented below includes personal gifts, entertainment, and/or other benefits of more than $100 in value in the aggregate during the past twelve months covered by this statement from suppliers of goods or services or from students, faculty, or others associated with or seeking association with the University. I am also listing all situations in which I am unable to determine a value for the personal gifts, entertainment, and/or other benefits in addition to the organizations, including corporations and business entities, of which I am an owner or for which I serve as a director, trustee, or officer. I hereby represent that I understand that Baylor University is a charitable organization and that in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

(NOTE: Please provide a good-faith estimate in the event you cannot document actual value(s) of $100 or more.)

None

All disclosures made pursuant to this policy remain confidential, except where a finding of existing or threatened material conflict has been made by the President or by the committee that reviews the disclosures of employees with administrative responsibilities and other employees whose position/responsibilities requires contact with external companies, such as consultants, vendors, and material/service providers who do business with the University in which case the facts along with the action taken based upon such finding will be reported to the Board of Regents.

BU-PP 800A
Revised: March, 1999