

Unauthorized Publications

Student publications are subject to the regulation of the University Communications Media Committee. No student publication shall be distributed on the University campus unless approved by this committee. The sale of advertisements must be approved by the Communications Media Committee.