Collection Development

The Law Library maintains various written collection development policies which are intended to support the educational and research mission of the broader law school community. These policies cover the general collection, the government documents collection, and the library's electronic collection. For further information about these policies, please contact Brandon Quarles, the Law Library Director, at 254.710.4916.